the heart of god does not contain any desire for the destruction of any human being his love for us has such depths and widths that it cannot be measured but it can be understood and grasped as the word clearly says in ephesians 3 the beautiful heart of god has the desire for the salvation healing deliverance and restoration of man that desire is expressed in everything he does for us but especially in the enormous sacrifice of his son jesus christ his precious son was despised and rejected by man tortured and crucified for our iniquities through that sacrifice his grace was released for us now we can be free from the grip of sin totally free there is grace and forgiveness rest for the weary and hope for the broken hearted in this process of restoration it is all about finding who we are when our hearts are truly opened for god the first thing we will notice is the carnal nature of our heart and everything that lives in it that revelation is far from pleasant but it is needed first of all because it shows us the need to change and secondly it reveals the true value of his grace to us once we know what exactly he has forgiven us we will understand the value of his grace and because of that we will be able to understand his love for us we can try to change our ways but we will never succeed in doing that as long as the root of the problem is still intact that root is our own heart we all have the tendency to first make ourselves perfect and blameless before we go into his presence we want to offer him a life that is pleasant to him but that is a logical error it is not you who is able to change your heart only the word of god can and will do that you are already wanted and loved by your creator when the bible speaks about repentance it doesn't speak about your attempts to try as hard as you can to stop committing sin it speaks about changing the way you think it speaks about aligning your thoughts with the word of god it is only the word of god that has the power to change you from the inside out that is the sort of change that will last and will lead you to the full restoration that he promised

in the kingdom of god each person's destiny is the playing out of that person's unique identity as a son of god regardless of gender race or background to embrace one's identity as a son one must change his prevailing culture in this season god is building his house in the earth with the relationship of fathers and sons as its foundation effecting cultural changes requires a trans generational effort in which a change in the culture is but one of the first steps of a long journey to reestablish fully the house of god this journey is meant to reposition man in the relationship with god as father as god intended from the beginning the purpose of repositioning humankind as sons and heirs to god is to establish the family of god on the earth and to display the love of god through his sons to all of creation whereas the destiny of each son of god is vitally important the entire purpose of god can only ultimately be accomplished through the corporate form the house of god

many famous antique texts are misunderstood and many others have been completely dismissed all because the literary style in which they were written is unfamiliar today so argues mary douglas in this controversial study of ring composition a technique which places the meaning of a text in the middle framed by a beginning and ending in parallel to read a ring composition in the modern linear fashion is to misinterpret it douglas contends and today's scholars must reevaluate important antique texts from around the world found in the bible and in writings from as far a field as egypt china indonesia greece and russia ring composition is too widespread to have come from a single source does it perhaps derive from the way the brain works what is its function in social contexts the author examines ring composition its principles and functions in a cross cultural way she focuses on ring composition in homer's iliad the bible's book of numbers and for a challenging modern example laurence Sterne's tristram shandy developing a persuasive argument for reconstruing famous books and rereading neglected ones

Called to Rebuild: The Restoration of the House of God

Over 2,500 years ago a Jewish remnant returned to Jerusalem after 70 years of Babylonian captivity to rebuild the House of God which had been laid waste by Nebuchadnezzar. They faced opposition and countless challenges, sometimes the task seemed impossible, but God never gave up. He wanted a restored temple, a rebuilt wall, and a repopulated city where He could once again dwell among His people. As we read the New Testament, we see glimpses of the glory of the first-century church, but even then, in the decade leading up to the fall of Jerusalem in 70 AD, the church had already begun to lapse into a period of decline. But as in every generation, God is a God of restoration. With the parallels concerning the spiritual condition at the time of the remnant and that of the church today, what better books could we turn to than the remnant books of Ezra and Nehemiah, along with the other related books of Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi, to gain insight into what God would have to say to His church today. Called to Rebuild examines these precious books and draws application for those who would be the spiritual descendants of that remnant in this generation. This book is for those who have a heart to rebuild and see the church in our day become what God has always intended for it to be.

All Things New

New York Times bestselling author John Eldredge offers readers a breathtaking look into God's promise for a new heaven and a new earth. This revolutionary book about our future is based on the simple idea that according to the Bible, heaven is not our eternal home; the new earth is. As Jesus says in the Gospel of Matthew, the next chapter of our story begins with the renewal of all things, by which He means the earth we love in all its beauty, our own selves, and the things that make for a rich life: music, art, food, laughter, and all that we hold dear. Everything shall be renewed when the world is made new. More than anything else, how you envision your future shapes your current experience. If you knew that God was going to restore your life and everything you love any day, if you believed a great and glorious goodness was coming to you, not in a vague heaven but right here on this earth, you would have a hope to see you through anything, an anchor for your soul, an unbreakable spiritual lifeline reaching past all appearances right to the very presence of God. Hebrews 6:19: "Most Christians, most people, for that matter, fail to look forward to their future because their view of heaven is vague, religious, and frankly boring. Hope begins when we understand that for the believer, nothing is lost. Heaven is not a life in the clouds; it is not endless harp strumming or worship singing. Rather, the life we long for, the paradise Adam and Eve knew, is precisely the life that is coming to us, and that life is coming soon."

The Loss and Restoration of the Image of God in Man: Being the Substance of Two Sermons [on John V. 17] Preached ... December 28, 1800

God called me into the ministry of inner healing decades ago, and from that came a passion to see people set free. In Jesus Christ, like I was one of the most troubling concerns in my thirty-five years of pastoral/lay ministry, has been the issue of identity in both men and women. Most Christians do not know who they are in Christ to one degree or another; we all wear false labels or identities which can lead to a lot of confusion loneliness anxiety failure insecurity depression and fear with a ripple effect that goes into our families and all interpersonal areas of our lives add to that once satan can take the child of god down in the area of our image he wins as we become isolated depressed ineffectual in life and ultimately hopeless that we'll never change or our circumstances will never change this false identity also hinders us from putting the past sins hurts and deprivations behind us and since insecurity and fear are at the top of the list for most of us it leaves us not trusting in the one who created us in his image in his likeness to have purpose to serve to love and be loved and to share in the abundant life the father promised his children the bible says in john 8:32 so if the son sets you free you will be freed indeed but it takes identifying what the false labels identity is then removing those labels and walking in the fullness of who our lord always meant for each of us to be the last nine chapters of the prophecy of ezekiel present some interesting challenges to the bible student whilst there is general agreement that the temple described in detail by the prophet has never been built there is disagreement amongst expositors about when it will be constructed if ever the author of this book believes there is no doubt that ezekiel sees in vision a representation of the temple and its services that will form the basis of the future kingdom of god he explains how an understanding of ezekiel's visions depends upon an acceptance that the kingdom of god will be a restoration of the kingdom of israel the laws that will be instituted will be based upon the law of mooses with certain amendments and additions the temple ritual will serve to educate the subjects of the kingdom in divine ways and lead them to an acceptance of the lord jesus christ as the messiah and an appreciation of the work that he has already accomplished in laying down his life as a sacrifice for sin

the purpose of writing this book is to share life and god from a wholly different perspective and do my part in the restoration of god's great kingdom i will do this by sharing my life and its unfolding to the present and where i see things going from here i have had many vision and experiences since being a young child and lived as a monk for 19 years in my 20s and 30s the journey continues but it is time for me to write it down and share the first four acts of my life as a prelude to the fifth it is time for us to wake up as humanity as god's children to love one another to lift each other up to actualize our full potential and birth rights we are in a time in history that has a lot of awakening happening around the world as it does so also the darkness is fighting for its life and it plays dirty doing everything it can to insert seeds of darkness doubt fear and the fostering self centeredness into everything and everyone for a long time the world has been descending into darkness through a process of political corruption greed selfishness the destruction of innocence and spiritual corruption the direct perception of god the truth divinity and our amazing birthrights as children of the most high is possible for everyone while living it is hidden beneath so much confusion and darkness manifesting in every area of our lives that we have been losing our way more and more for a very long time this is all part of god's plan it is happening so each person can decide for themselves who they are going to be or to make it more personal who are you choosing to be but the time for the turning is almost here so

in this book i will share some quite amazing things that will hopefully open your eyes to a world that is filled with god s love grace mystery and purpose and re invigorate a new love trust and wonderment in god god s creation and his great plan of which we are all a part god s light and grace is infinitely more powerful than the darkness so if god is in your heart by inviting him in as often as you remember and you love him and his kingdom with every fiber of your being then you have nothing to fear no matter how things may appear in any moment never lose your faith stay focused on god s love you are under his protection we are all together god is with us here and now heaven is literally all around us at all times just outside of our perception who are you choosing to be

Ravens argues that Luke s belief in God s restoration of Israel provides the key context for understanding Luke Acts his attitudes to Jews his surveys of Israel s history and his interest in the Samaritans combine to suggest his wider pre-Davidic view of Israel a view that becomes the pattern for the restored Israel under its Davidic king Luke s belief leads him to present Christology and atonement in ways that cohere with Jewish hopes and to correct apparently anti-Jewish elements in Paul s letters and Matthew s Gospel this theme also determines his account of the Gentile mission and his pastoral concern for unity
