The Rotarian: March 2013 2013-09-11 despite acknowledging that a handful of providers give him concern the regulator is reluctant to give them lower financial viability ratings fearing that doing so might trigger an upward re pricing of their debt instead the regulator uses governance ratings to signal concerns about financial viability this practice lacks openness and should stop and accurate financial viability ratings should be published the fear of triggering a re pricing also prevents the regulator from using many of his statutory powers preferring to adopt informal approaches instead this lacks transparency and risks too close a relationship developing between the regulator and providers the devolved administrations housing regulators not to mention regulators in other sectors must encounter similar dilemmas the regulator should work with them to see how they have addressed his concern that the use of statutory powers could prove counter productive the committee s concerns are underlined by the case of cosmopolitan housing group which came close to insolvency in 2012 the regulator only lowered its financial viability rating for cosmopolitan in december 2012 despite the fact that he had been monitoring the situation for months and the possibility of insolvency had been raised in the media two months previously the report also raises concerns about how effectively the regulator is discharging his remit for consumer regulation noting that of 111 complaints related to consumer standards referred to the regulator no case of serious consumer detriment was found the report calls for an annual external check to be carried out to provide assurance that the regulator is discharging his duties effectively

House of Commons - Communities and Local Government Committee: The Work Of The Regulation Committee Of The Homes And Communities Agency - HC 130 2014-04-24 exploring the evolution of the united nations relief and works agency for palestine refugees in the near east unrwa this book fills a lacuna in literature on the agency unrwa and palestinian refugees employs recent fieldwork in order to analyse challenges in programmes and service delivery protection camp governance community participation and camp improvement and reconstruction the chapters examine the way unrwa is adapting to a changing social political and economic context mostly within urban settings a paradigmatic shift from understanding the agency s role as simply a provider of relief and services to one comprehensively supporting the human development of palestinian refugees examining the refugee debate using new disciplines and research frameworks this collection aims to emphasise the centrality of the palestinian refugee issue for middle east peace making and to contribute a better understanding of a unique agency this book will be a useful aid for students and researchers with an interest in middle east studies politics and the israeli palestinian conflict

UNRWA and Palestinian Refugees 2016-04-18 the inappropriate use of antibiotics is a primary cause of the ongoing increase in drug resistance amongst pathogenic bacteria the resulting decrease in the efficacy of antibiotics threatens our ability to combat infectious diseases rapid point of care tests to identify pathogens and better target the appropriate treatment could greatly improve the use of antibiotics yet there are few such tests currently available or being developed despite the rapid pace of medical innovation clearly something is inhibiting the much needed development of new and more convenient diagnostic tools this study delineates priorities for developing diagnostics to improve antibiotic prescription and use with the goal of managing and curbing the expansion of drug resistance it calls for new approaches particularly in the provision of diagnostic devices and in doing so outlines some of the inadequacies in health science and policy initiatives that have led to the dearth of such devices the authors make the case that there is a clear and urgent need for innovation not only in the technology of diagnosis but also in public policy and medical practice to support the availability and use of better diagnostic tools this book explores the complexities of the diagnostics market from the perspective of both supply and demand unearthing interesting bottlenecks some obvious some more subtle it calls for a multifaceted and broad policy response and an overhaul of current practice so that the growth of bacterial resistance can be stemmed

Ensuring Innovation in Diagnostics for Bacterial Infection 2013-11-19 motivation altruism personality and social psychology takes up the debate around altruism and the acceptance in society that self interest is a healthy guiding principle in life and argues that helping behaviour can lead to self fulfilment and happiness and is beneficial to psychological health and society in general

Motivation, Altruism, Personality and Social Psychology 2017-05-01 an in depth look at the changing sociolinguistic dynamics that have influenced south african society to date there has been no published textbook which takes into account changing sociolinguistic dynamics that have influenced south african society multilingualism and intercultural communication breaks new ground in this arena the scope of this book ranges from macro sociolinguistic questions pertaining to language policies and their implementation or non implementation to micro sociolinguistic observations of actual language use in verbal interaction mainly in multilingual contexts of higher education he there is a gradual move for the study of language and culture to be taught in the context of professional disciplines in which they would be used for example journalism and african languages education and african languages etc the book caters for this growing market because of its multilingual nature it caters to english and afrikaans language speakers as well as the sotho and nguni language groups the largest languages in south africa and also increasingly used in the context of south african higher education it brings together various inter linked disciplines such as sociolinguistics and applied language studies media studies and journalism history and education social and natural sciences law human language technology music intercultural communication and literary studies the unique cross cutting disciplinary features of the book will make it a must have for twenty first century south african students and scholars and those interested in applied language issues

Multilingualism and Intercultural Communication 2013-12-04 teacher education through active engagement identifies and addresses a contemporary issue the ways in which teaching and teacher education are articulated by politicians civil servants business leaders and educational entrepreneurs intent on profit making in the current global neoliberal policy context this is often characterised by narrow and ill conceived ideas about teacher characteristics and competences recruiting and fast tracking graduates from elsewhere into the profession the reform of teacher training with less emphasis on theory and academic study a narrow focus on teachers core skills and the promotion of training in model teaching schools in this book contributors challenge this conceptualisation and demonstrate practitioners necessary intellectual activity to wrest back professional control by drawing on practice focused research carried out in sites of educational policy and practice each chapter exemplifies for teachers student teachers and teacher educators the sort of knowledge work to coordinate a professional reply to non educationalists who dictate the terms of teaching and teacher education the book provides directions for encouraging critical thinking analytical skills and political activism which consider the needs and interests of diverse children and young people in real classrooms real schools and real communities illustrated throughout with practice focused research and drawing on the historical case of winifred mercier and her colleagues at the city of leeds training college who challenged the establishment to leave a legacy of professional control the book will appeal to practitioners academics and researchers in the fields of teacher education and education studies

Teacher Education through Active Engagement 2016-01-26 clements provides a detailed study of religious beliefs in british society using a broad range of opinion poll and social survey data examining public opinion on religious secular issues this book provides a rich analysis of the belief and attitudes of social groups over time Surveying Christian Beliefs and Religious Debates in Post-War Britain 2013-09-23 this volume examines the legacy of the international criminal tribunal for the former yugoslavia icty which was created under chapter vii of the un charter as a mechanism explicitly aimed at the restoration and maintenance of international peace and security as the icty has now entered its twentieth year this volume reflects on the record and practices of the tribunal since it was established it has had enormous impact on the procedural jurisprudential and institutional development of international criminal law as well as the international criminal justice project this will be its international legacy but its legacy in the region where the crimes under its jurisdiction took place is less clear research has shown that reactions to the icty have been mixed among the communities most affected by its work bringing together a range of key thinkers in the field prosecuting war crimes explores these findings and discusses why many feel that the icty has failed to fully engage with people s experiences and meet their expectations this book will be of much interest to students of war crimes international criminal law central and east european politics human rights and peace and conflict studies

Prosecuting War Crimes 2015-08-04 this book is a godsend a moving portrait for anyone wanting to go beyond the simplified labels and metrics and really understand an urban high school and its highly individual resilient eager and brilliant students and educators dave eggert co founder 826 national and scholarmatch darrell is a reflective brilliant young man who never thought of himself as a good student he always struggled with his reading and writing skills darrell s father a single parent couldn t afford private tutors by the end of middle school darrell s grades and his confidence were at an all time low then everything changed when education journalist kristina rizga first met darrell at mission high school he was taking ap calculus class writing a ten page research paper and had received several college acceptance letters and darrell was not an exception more than 80 percent of mission high seniors go to college every year even though the school teaches large numbers of english learners and students from poor families so why has the federal government been threatening to close mission high and schools like it across the country the united states has been on a century long road toward increased standardization in our public schools which resulted in a system that reduces the quality of education to primarily one metric standardized test scores according to this number mission high is a low performing school even though its college enrollment graduation attendance rates and student surveys are some of the best in the country the qualities that matter the most in learning skills like critical thinking intellectual engagement resilience empathy self management and cultural flexibility can't be measured by multiple choice questions designed by distant testing companies rizga argues but they can be detected by skilled teachers in effective personalized and humane classrooms that work for all students not just the most motivated ones based on four years of reporting with unprecedented access the unforgettable intimate stories in these pages throw open the doors to america's most talked about and arguably least understood public school classrooms where the largely invisible voices of our smart resilient students and their committed educators can offer a clear and hopeful blueprint for what it takes to help all students succeed

Brief Counseling That Works 2012-06-26 evidence given to the committee showed that armed forces personnel and their families valued accommodation very highly and saw it as part of their terms and conditions of employment and as promoting unit cohesion and support for families when personnel were deployed on operations the provision of accommodation was particularly important for those who were required to be mobile it was the only option allowing families to live together it is also clear that for many personnel service families accommodation is the only affordable housing solution indeed the families federation said that inquiries and complaints about accommodation account for more than half of the regular communications they receive so when the committee considered the mod's decision to halt upgrade work on accommodation for the next three years they saw it as damaging to the covenant and recommended that the mod look again urgently at the stoppage which in any case could well be a false economy in early 2012 the mod began work on the new employment model looking at how armed forces personnel are employed one element of this is the future accommodation the committee recommends that this project should be sufficiently flexible to meet the needs of the three individual services by allowing sufficient variation to meet their differing needs they should also take account of the needs of personnel at different stages in their lives and careers given the fragility of morale we recommend that the mod should use a more effective communications strategy to keep service families in the picture

Minerals Yearbook 2018-04-19 the centre for child law commissioned this study by cornerstone economic research to track school infrastructure spending and delivery the report written by carmen abdoll and conrad barberton makes the concerning finding that the national department of basic education has woefully underspent the school infrastructure backlog grant for two years running in 2011 2012 spending was a little over 10 per cent and only at 23 per cent in 2012 2013 at the end of the third quarter the asidi target for the number of schools to be built in 2011 2012 and 2012 2013 was 49 however only 10 had been completed by the end of the first year they predict that if the dbe continues at the same delivery rate a realistic timeframe for the eradication of schools with inappropriate structures is probably 2023 24 they make recommendations which if followed could shorten the delay significantly this study shows the importance of monitoring and evaluating progress against court orders and out of court settlements to ensure that the right to a basic education is made real
