ProjectX India 2021-11-01 when framers of the american constitution debated the document and form of government in 1787 they chose not to adopt the british system as they knew its flaws in 230 years usa has grown beyond what the framers could have envisioned but the constitution has endured the american president has far less powers than the british pm british pm william evert gladstone had said nowhere is there a man who has so much power with so little to show for it in the way of formal title or prerogative british historian sir sidney jm low wrote in 1904 an english prime minister with his majority secure in parliament can do what the german emperor the american president and all the chairmen of all the committees of the united states congress cannot do together india was already the world s largest democracy on august 15 1947 but for almost 2½ years we followed the british constitution the 6 member constitution drafting committee with dr b r ambedkar as chairman prepared a draft constitution this was debated and 2000 amendments were moved over two years on november 26 1949 the constituent assembly adopted the constitution the committee

Construction and Infrastructure Development 2002 legislation is one of the most important tools for empowering children it reflects the commitment of the state to promote an ideal and progressive value system recent years have seen several key developments in the law policy and practice related to child rights significantly with the adoption of the united nations convention on the rights of the child in 1989 a rights based approach has acquired prominence in the child rights discourse across the world the book analyses the laws in the light of court judgments and policy initiatives taken in india it also examines the interventions and strategies employed by non governmental organizations in recommending legislative reforms in support of children this fully revised third edition focuses on the new legal developments in india such as the juvenile justice care and protection of children act 2015 the new central adoption resource agency guidelines the right of children to free and compulsory education act 2009 and the national food security act is the inspiring true story of rudrapratab and his team of engineers whose dedication and talent lead to the ideation and development of india s first bridge management system witnessing early on in life the tragic and wasteful loss of lives that bridge collapses cause sparks in rudrapratab a burning passion for bridge safety he devotes his life to creating a investigates the competing demand for water in the bhavani and noyyal river basins of south india from the early 19th century to the early 21st century from a historical perspective in doing so the book addresses several important questions did policy makers visualise the future demand while diverting water from distant places or other basins was efficient use ensured when the water was diverted or was it diverted in a manner that resulted in pollution and serious damage to the entire river basin were natural flows taken care of in order to preserve the ecology and environment what were the factors that aggravated the competing demand for water and what were the consequences for the future in the context of the current discourse on the competing demands for water this book takes the debate forward expanding the horizon of environmental history in the process until now agriculture industry and domestic water supply and their consequences for ecology the environment and livelihoods have been given scant attention velayutham saravanan s comprehensive account of automation in service delivery is on the agenda for every city administration however with close to 7000 urban centres in a country like india the service provision mechanism is at different levels of maturity across these centres further the components of the service delivery mechanism vary from state to state driving the need for harmony in the overall approach to service delivery this book is an attempt to evolve a best fit process framework which shall aid various stakeholders involved in the service delivery mechanism including subject matter experts service automation designers administrators and students of urban planning management to derive a roadmap for their respective plans for designing and enhancing service provisions the book outlines a lifecycle approach to service delivery as a whole with grouping of activities in each phase of the lifecycle leading to a set of processes in each phase the whole set of such processes is amalgamated into an overall framework
