the point of my title and the real gist of my argument lie perhaps in the word and that is in the intimate connection which i have tried to show exists between ritual and art this connection has i believe an important bearing on questions vital to day as for example the question of the place of art in our modern civilization its relation to and its difference from religion and morality in a word on the whole enquiry as to what the nature of art is and how it can help or hinder spiritual life i have taken greek drama as a typical instance because in it we have the clear historical case of a great art which arose out of a very primitive and almost world wide ritual the rise of the indian drama or the mediæval and from it the modern stage would have told us the same tale and served the like purpose but greece is nearer to us to day than either india or the middle ages greece and the greek drama remind me that i should like to offer my thanks to professor gilbert murray for help and criticism which has far outrun the limits of editorial duty j e h the excel hsc english area of study guide rainbow s end by jane harrison is directly linked to the syllabus with dot points of the hsc english syllabus appearing in the margin of the book you can write in the guide so your study is focused and your notes are structured this work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it this work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work this work is in the public domain in the united states of america and possibly other nations within the united states you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work as a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public we appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant i always enjoyed poetry as a child but never in my wildest dreams did i imagine i would be publishing a book of poems god has given me this gift so i must take up my pen and write when reading my poems it is from god s heart to mine to help comfort and encourage people while traveling this journey of life christian poetry is truly a gift from god that touches the heart and soul please enjoy reading these poems as god gave the words to me to inspire you tells of five young aboriginal children forcibly removed from their parents brought up in a repressive children s home and trained for domestic service and other menial jobs this tender and moving story goes further than any previous account to bring the tragic human story of the stolen generations to the australian stage this work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it this work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work this work is in the public domain in the united states of america and possibly other nations within the united states you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work as a
