struggles to attain godliness i view dying to self as a continual process and that one has never fully arrived there are many veils peeled away in due process i believe that there are still levels of maturity that are not even attained yet i felt i could fully say what i would like all christians to hear this is my portion and it is incomplete because everybody has a piece to the puzzle we need to have humility to take our pieces and to put them together paraphrased rick joyner i m not the all in all who knows all things i m not perfect i am not an intense person so i try to say things in such a way to try to not offend but on the other side i feel that the truth needs to be said i think we often overlook the simple things jesus said in the gospels many things that we often forget about this book was written in spurts all around the nation over a period of about 15 years if you want to know what the book is about the easiest way is to go through the chapters list topics to see the chapters list or get the digital version of my book free go to my webpage dieingtoself
