this book draws on extensive fieldwork among muslims in nepal to examine the local and global factors that shape contemporary muslim identity and the emerging islamic revival movement based in the kathmandu valley nepal s muslims are active participants in the larger global movement of sunni revival as well as in nepal s own local politics of representation the book traces how these two worlds are lived and brought together in the context of nepal s transition to secularism and explores muslim struggles for self definition and belonging against a backdrop of historical marginalization and an unprecedented episode of anti muslim violence in 2004 through the voices and experiences of muslims themselves the book examines nepal s most influential islamic organizations for what they reveal about contemporary movements of revival among religious minorities on the margins both geographic and social of the so called islamic world it reveals that islamic revival is both a complex response to the challenges faced by modern minority communities in this historically hindu kingdom and a movement to cultivate new modes of thought and piety among nepal s muslims this book deals with law of waqf muslim endowment law and its judicial response in india the volume covers several jurisprudential and historical aspects of waqf which include doctrines of waqf essential requisites of waqf valid objects of waqf historical account of waqf emergence of waqf law in india and constitutional validity of waqf in india the chapters then go on to discuss the waqf act 1995 and waqf amendment act 2013 the legal perspectives of each section of waqf act and its amendments are elucidated with references under reflections the case law has been analysed and cited under each section of waqf act wherever applicable this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of law and legal studies it will be of interest to practitioners of waqf jurisprudence in india the managers of waqf institutions and officials involved in waqf administration lakshadweep a group of coral islands in the arabian sea off the malabar coast is a centrally administered territory consisting of three distinct units laccadive minicoy and amindivi amini is the largest island of the amindivi unit the islanders have three caste like groups the aristocratic koya the sea faring malmi and the praedial slaves melacheri consisting of the descendants of migrants from the mainland this island society exhibits a unique blend of matrilineal principles and islamic regulations this can be seen in their institutions of taravad karanavan and duo local marriage on the one hand and in the observance of islamic prescriptions in regard to the performance of duties by fathers and husbands on occasions like birth circumcisions marriage and divorce and in the operation of the laws of property and inheritance on the other the historical and socio economic processes through which their social structure evolved the constraints under which it functions today the struggle of the melacheri to shake off the yoke of the koya the role of islam and the impact of government sponsored programmes form the subject matter of this fascinating study a part from describing an unusual form of social organization this book presents a significant microscopic picture of the processes of change in the island society
