his parentsin the forests of pennsylvania to returning to the stars on or about the year 2033 an altar boy and a paper boy he enjoyed the sanctity and sanctuary of a small childwho learned at an early age that we are here to sing and dance and give praise tothe life of bringing joy to others as a youth worker in pittsburgh he trained fourchildren to sing as the group of don the pennies his journey continues ontowards fatherhood as he becomes an actor in new york making choices that leadhim to his one true vocation that of being a loving father and husband he haswonderful meetings with carol burnett deborah howe author of bunnicula whodied quite young he has discovered the wonder of prayer and of developing atp a t h that will help us on the journey to the stars he has plunged to the depthsof despair and to the wonder of the heavens in a few short words he tells teenagersthey are the hope of the world and asks all to honor the sanctity of the children ofthe world and to join together to provide them sanctuary he is the director of theannual peace at last concert and charts the first inspiration to the actual event fromhis love of the music of stephen foster to the sharing with the world the wonderfulwork of anton dvorak who turned foster s simple way down upon the swaneeriver old folks at home into a choral symphonic piece he writes of a new visionfor this earth a place where we certainly recognize our function here is to totallybelieve in all the world coming to the realization that like martin luther king jr who he stood shoulder to shoulder with in 1965 will be not only free at last butexperience peace at last what does it feel like to walk into your school is it a welcoming place where everyone feels valued most school improvement efforts focus on academic goals instructional models curriculum and assessments but sometimes what can make or break your learning community are the intangibles the relationships identity and connections that make up its culture authors fisher frey and pumpian believe that no school improvement effort will be effective unless school culture is addressed they identify five pillars that are critical to building a culture of achievement 1 welcome imagine if all staff members in your school considered it their job to make every student parent and visitor feel noticed welcomed and valued 2 do no harm your school rules should be tools for teaching students to become the moral and ethical citizens you expect them to be 3 choice words when the language students hear helps them tell a story about themselves that is one of possibility and potential students perform in ways that are consistent with that belief 4 it s never too late to learn can you push students to go beyond the minimum needed to get by to discover what they are capable of achieving 5 best school in the universe is your school the best place to teach and learn the best place to work drawing on their years of experience in the classroom the authors explain how these pillars support good teaching and learning in addition they provide 19 action research tools that will help you create a culture of achievement so that your school or classroom is the best it can be after reading this book you ll see why culture makes the difference between a school that enables success for all students and a school that merely houses those
