the modern english theatre has had its poets and it has had its dramatists but in john arden it has acquired its first dramatic poet since well let s be rash the days of shakespeare sunday times the waters of babylon this wild acidly funny and oddly tragic story of london low life reveals arden s tough linguistic freedom and the free wheeling ease with which he switches from prose to verse and back again sunday times live like pigs thrilling theatre a rumbustious delight outrageously funny powerfully dramatic and when you least expect it genuinely moving a modern classic daily telegraph the happy haven written with margaretta d arcy this rare and excellent revival perfectly reflects the play s bizarre atmosphere its potent mixture of farcical prose rhymed poetry its marked avoidance of schematic moral codes time out serjeant musgrave s dance a modern classic a white hot piece of work since its first appearance in 1959 the play has advanced towards us as if in a slow prophetic march the times also included in the volume is when is a door not a door a one act industrial episode john arden was one of the major playwrights to have emerged during the 1950s yet his work has arguably been misunderstood in this book first published in 1974 albert hunt s primary concern is to relate the plays written by john arden alone as well as those written in collaboration with margaretta d arcy both to arden s whole concept of theatre and to his social and political attitudes the book begins with a biographical introduction followed by a play by play study of arden s work and a survey of the impact of his plays in performance alongside fascinating images celebrating the work and life of the playwright this timely reissue will be of particular value to students of theatre studies as well as professional actors with an interest in john arden s plays and theatrical ideologies
