Background Papers on The IMF and the Crises in Greece, Ireland, and Portugal 2017-06-30

this volume book brings together nine background papers prepared for an evaluation by the imf independent evaluation office of the imf and the crises in greece ireland and portugal it presents an authoritative work on the evolving relationship between the imf and the euro area a common currency area founded in 1999 consisting of advanced highly integrated economies in europe the euro area or any common currency area for that matter has posed challenges to the imf s operational activities as its articles of agreement contain no provision for joint membership the challenges became intense when a series of crises erupted in greece ireland and portugal from 2009 to 2011 and the fund was called upon to help intervene by offering its financing and crisis management expertise the imf found itself in uncharted territory where there was no precedent or established procedure the chapters many of which are prepared by prominent academics and former senior imf officials who are thoroughly familiar with internal procedures discuss various aspects of the imf s engagement with the euro area including precrisis surveillance how key decisions were made how the imf collaborated with european institutions and how it designed and implemented its lending programs with the three crisis countries the book gives prominence to governance related issues given the large voting share of more than 20 percent within the imf of euro area members and the subsequent public perception that the imf treated the euro area more favorably than it does developing and emerging market members the approaches are both cross cutting and country based some chapters deal with issues related to the euro area as a whole while others focus on how the fund engaged with individual euro area countries the book contains a statement on the ieo evaluation by the imf managing director and a summing up of the executive board discussion held in july 2016

9 IPMAT Solved Papers (2021 - 2017) for IIM Indore, Jammu & Rohtak 2015-02-20

China presents us with a conundrum how has a developing country with a spectacularly inefficient financial system coupled with asset destroying state owned firms managed to create a number of vibrant high tech firms China's domestic financial system fails most private firms by neglecting to give them sufficient support to pursue technological upgrading even while smothering state favoured firms by providing them with too much support due to their foreign financing multinational corporations suffer from neither insufficient funds nor soft budget constraints but they are insufficiently committed to China's development hybrid firms that combine ethnic Chinese management and foreign financing are the hidden dragons driving China's technological development they avoid the maladies of China's domestic financial system while remaining committed to enhancing China's domestic technological capabilities in sad contrast China's domestic firms are technological paper tigers state efforts to build local innovation clusters and create national champions have not managed to transform these firms into drivers of technological development these findings upend fundamental debates about China's political economy rather than a choice between state capitalism and building domestic market institutions china has fostered state capitalism even while tolerating the importing of foreign market institutions while the book s findings suggest that china s state and domestic market institutions are ineffective the hybrids promise an alternative way to avoid the middle income trap by documenting how variation in china s institutional terrain impacts technological development the book also provides much needed nuance to widespread yet mutually irreconcilable claims that china is either an emerging innovation power or a technological backwater looking beyond china hybrid led development has implications for new alternative economic development models and new ways to conceptualize contemporary capitalism that go beyond current domestic institution centric approaches
