what is going on in fact from chinese versions of coronation street and sex and the city indian and indonesian remakes of who wants to be a millionaire program clones of ground force and other make over and renovation shows across europe and the uk the present is the era of the global tv format but what exactly is a format after all programs have been copied and imitated since the beginnings of broadcasting in this the first book in the english language to systematically deal with the subject albert moran and justin malbon provide a valuable guide to the institutional cultural and legal dimensions of the format now widely referred to although equally often misunderstood the tv format is a commodity of production finance distribution broadcasting and marketing knowledges that is facilitating the international reconfiguration of program making understanding the global tv format thus addresses the different stages and issues of the business it tracks the steps whereby formats are devised developed and distributed major companies are profiled as are the international markets and festivals at which trade occurs however there is also a great deal of piracy taking place so that the book is concerned with the control and regulation of format remaking legal protection is often both the first and last recourse of parties and the authors examine the relevance of laws essential guide to discovering and developing formats for any media or television production student or early career development professional jensen s format writing is concerned with developing expository writing skills for high school students this type of writing exposes puts forth explains reveals or exhibits in detail about something it has a purpose to inform clarify and perhaps even to persuade such writing may simply describe or it may give a series of reasons in any case there is a fundamental point that is made how that point is made may often determine whether the piece is accepted or rejected students completing this course will learn valuable skills the secret of cutting your work in half when it comes to writing a paper how to order your presentation for its most powerful effect on the reader a technique for getting the essence of what you read down on paper for future reference how to stack up your ideas so that they flow together in a natural fashion how to move ideas from sentence to sentence by following a simple rule all about what and how to document your sources when doing research and writing studies of digital communication technologies often focus on the apparently unique set of multimodal resources afforded to users and the development of innovative linguistic strategies for performing mediated identities and maintaining online social networks this edited volume interrogates the novelty of such practices by establishing a transhistorical approach to the study of digital communication the transhistorical approach explores language practices as lived experiences grounded in historical contexts and aims to identify those elements of human behaviour that transcend historical boundaries looking beyond specific developments in communication technologies to understand the enduring motivations and social concerns that drive human communication the volume reveals long term patterns in the indexical functions of seemingly innovative written and multimodal resources and the ideologies that underpin them and shows that methods are not necessarily contingent on their datasets historical analytic frameworks can be applied to digital data and newer approaches used to understand historical data these insights present exciting opportunities for english language researchers both historical and modern the first book to consider the shellac disc as a global format with the rise of the gramophone around 1900 the shellac disc traveled the world and eventually became the dominant sound format in procedural the bill which became la squadra when the format was licensed to be aired on italian screens focusing on one specific institutional field that of the formal police interview the book explores the characteristic features and constituent parts of such institutional speech events namely the differential distribution of knowledge and rights to knowledge the asymmetrical and adversarial strategies employed by the dyadic pair made up of interviewer and interviewee the sequential and interactional features of answers the legislative framework which governs investigative interviewing in the two countries in which the format was aired and the place of the interview room scenes in the overall narrative structure of the televised episodes what emerges from the study is not only an interesting comparison between two languages cultures and institutions findings also point to a different perception of reality and authenticity in the two formats being investigated as such the book will be of interest to students and scholars of linguistics and media studies the cross linguistic and cross cultural analyses presented here serve to illustrate that the global phenomenon of international format transferral is becoming increasingly local rooted in the culture language and worldview of the country of arrival this 230 page study looks at trends among corporate
