New Mana

2016-04-13

mana a term denoting spiritual power is found in many pacific islands languages in recent decades the term has been taken up in new age movements and online fantasy gaming in this book 16 contributors examine mana through ethnographic linguistic and historical lenses to understand its transformations in past and present the authors consider a range of contexts including indigenous sovereignty movements christian missions and bible translations the commodification of cultural heritage and the dynamics of diaspora their investigations move across diverse island groups papua new guinea solomon islands vanuatu fiji tonga samoa hawai i and french polynesia and into australia north america and even cyberspace a key insight that the volume develops is that mana can be analysed most productively by paying close attention to its ethical and aesthetic dimensions since the late nineteenth century mana has been an object of intense scholarly interest writers in many fields including anthropology linguistics history religion philosophy and missiology have long debated how the term should best be understood the authors in this volume review mana s complex intellectual history but also describe the remarkable transformations going on in the present day as scholars activists church leaders artists and entrepreneurs take up mana in new ways inner work is a name commonly given to the inner processes that happen in ritual it can also mean the transformation of the psyche that comes about through engaging in religious ritual however the best kind of inner work also has an effect outside the individual and outside the circle when rituals are focused only on self development they tend to be a bit too introspective ritual is about creating and maintaining relationships and connections between body mind and spirit with the earth nature the land the spirit world the community and friends it is about making meaning weaving a web of symbolism story mythology meaning community and love creating a community that welcomes and celebrates diversity creating strong and authentic identity to resist the pressures of consumerism and commercialism and capitalism weaving relationship with other beings humans animals birds spirits deities
