an extensive retrospective dedicated to roger raveel 1921 2013 one of the most important belgian painters of the second half of the 20th century commemorating the centenary of the artist s birth in 2021 the centre for fine arts bozar will present an extensive retrospective dedicated to roger raveel 1921 2013 considered one of the most important belgian painters of the second half of the twentieth century while belonging to the generation of artists that emerged following the second world war flanked by magritte and panamarenko raveel radically defended his own independence from the values commonly associated with this generation notably the supposed superiority of internationality over all forms of local anchorage in today s context of globalized art and its associated stereotypes raveel s choice to draw inspiration from his immediate intimate surroundings while always being very well informed about trends in the international art scene now seems revolutionary even prophetic showcasing some 120 artworks from public and private collections this catalogue seeks to demonstrate the singularity of raveel s pictorial language as it took form over time in 2021 the roger raveel museum will celebrate the 100th birthday of the artist who left an unmistakable mark on the development of post war painting in belgium with seeing thinking painting the museum brings a selection of paintings and drawings by raveel from the period 1948 1968 into dialogue with the work of a number of painters who were incontournable for the development of this oeuvre on the basis of various oral and written sources the raveel museum has been able to bring together a selection of works in challenging circumstances that does not want to be exhaustive but above all an experiment the start of the broader research that the museum wants to conduct and share in the future it is an invitation to immerse oneself in the pictorial universe that raveel formed as a painter seeing thinking painting offers a complementary answer and addition to roger raveel s retrospective at the palais des beaux arts in brussels here in machelen aan de leie one meets the painter in his habitat and above all in excellent art historical company roger raveel die in 2021 honderd jaar zou zijn geworden wordt beschouwd als een van de belangrijkste belgische schilders van na de tweede wereldoorlog eigenzinnig als hij was koos hij niet voor een bepaalde stroming of school maar ontwikkelde hij zijn eigen opmerkelijke stijl 0 hij keek om zich heen registreerde onbevangen zijn geboortedorp machelen aan de leie en richtte zijn blik op de banaliteit van alledag schrijft kunstcriticus eric rinckhout in het inleidend essay bij dit boek alles was schilderbaar vond raveel een boom een duif een koffiepote een schaar een fiets een betonnen afsluiting en de witte was die wappert aan de lijn dat alles bracht hij zo verscheiden en avontuurlijk mogelijk in beeld nu eens schurend en weerbarstig dan weer vloeiend en oogstrelend 0hij schilderde het spanningsveld tussen figuratie en abstractie kennis en mysterie anekdote en essentie schoonheid en onvolmaaktheid zijn dorp tilde hij op tot een universeel gegeven 0 het mysterie van het alledaagse beschrijft in woord en beeld 70 translations are crucial to the flow of themes images forms and ideas across boundaries they constitute a special case of cultural dynamics as in a sense they are existing texts revived in a new form the introduction of textual works in a target culture involves a high degree of strategy and control these moments of control selection and influence deserve special attention in cultural receptional and translation historical studies the essays in this yearbook address aspects of the central topic the impact of translations on cultural historical developments in europe first and foremost is the question which works were selected and why and next which were neglected and why in a wider scope what in the long term processes of cultural transfer were the peaks or key moments and of which nature was the discourse accompanying the presence of a foreign language culture in translation why did it all happen like this and what was the precise impact of the introduction of new works new ideas new culture through the medium of translation these are the questions to which the authors of this work attempt to provide answers les traductions ont une importance cruciale quant à la circulation des thèmes des images des formes et des idées au delà des frontières elles représentent un cas particulier de dynamique culturelle insufflant en un sens une nouvelle vie à des textes existant l introduction d oeuvres écrites dans une culture cible suppose un déploiement important de stratégies visant à contrôler ces processus qui font l objet d une attention toute particulière dans les études d histoire culturelle de réception et d histoire de la traduction les études contenues dans ce volume s intéressent aux différents aspects du sujet principal l impact des traductions sur les développements historiques et culturels en europe tout d abord quelles sont les oeuvres retenues pourquoi celles ci et non pas d autres plus généralement les auteurs s intéressent aux moments où l influence a atteint un apogée dans les processus à longue échéance des transferts culturels et à la nature du discours accompagnant la présence sous forme de traduction d'une culture en langue étrangère pourquoi tout cela est-il arrivé de la sorte et quel est l'impact précis de l'introduction d'œuvres d'idées d'une culture nouvelles à travers le médium de la traduction voilà dans tous les cas les questions clés auxquelles les auteurs de cet ouvrage entendent répondre
