new york times book review a stout defense indeed the best i have read of the obama years a new york times bestseller david axelrod has always been a believer whether as a young journalist investigating city corruption a campaign consultant guiding underdog candidates against entrenched orthodoxy or as senior adviser to the president during one of the worst crises in american history axelrod held fast to his faith in the power of stories to unite diverse communities and ignite transformative political change now this legendary strategist the mastermind behind barack obama s historic election campaigns shares a wealth of stories from his forty year journey through the inner workings of american democracy believer is the tale of a political life well lived of a man who never gave up on the deepest promises our country has to offer believer reveals the roots of axelrod s devotion to politics and his faith in democratic change as a child of the 60s in new york city axelrod worked his first campaigns during a tumultuous decade that began with soaring optimism and ended in violence and chaos as a young newspaperman in chicago during the 1970s and 80s axelrod witnessed another world transformed when he reported on the dissolution of the last of the big city political machines richard daley dan rostenkowski and harold washington along with the emergence of a dynamic black independent movement that ultimately made obama s ascent possible after cutting his teeth in the rollicking world of chicago journalism axelrod switched careers to become a political strategist his unorthodox tactics during his first campaign helped him get paul simon unexpectedly elected to the senate and soon axelrod s counsel was sought by the greatest lights of the democratic party working for path breakers like hillary clinton deval patrick and rahm emanuel and morally conflicted characters like rod blagojevich and john edwards axelrod for better and worse redefined the techniques by which modern political campaigns are run the heart of believer is axelrod s twenty year friendship with barack obama a warm partnership that inspired both men even as it propelled each to great heights taking a chance on an unlikely candidate for the u s senate axelrod ultimately collaborated closely with obama on his political campaigns and served as the invaluable strategist who contributed to the tremendous victories of 2008 and 2012 switching careers again axelrod served as senior adviser to the president during one of the most challenging periods in national history working at obama s side as he battled an economic disaster navigated america through two wars and fought to reform health care the financial sector and our gridlocked political institutions in believer axelrod offers a deeper and richer profile of this extraordinary figure who in just four years vaulted from the illinois state senate to the oval office from the perspective of one who was at his side every step of the way spanning forty years that include corruption and transformation turmoil and progress believer takes readers behind the closed doors of politics even as it offers a thrilling call to democratic action axelrod s believer is a powerful and inspiring memoir enlivened by the charm and candor of one of the greatest political strategists in recent american history doris kearns goodwin author of the bully pulpit and team of rivals beautifully written with warmth humor and remarkable self awareness believer is one of the finest political memoirs i have ever read corruption within the nixon administration was not limited to watergate his committee on health education ignored and suppressed the opinions of professional health educators in this history two education insiders explain why and how the committee was a sham from the beginning one of the authors joy garrison cauffman participated on the committee and was threatened by president nixons representatives for expressing her opinions now cauffman and her coauthor ronald l linder reveal how political insiders took steps to form the bogus committee how president nixon and his people quashed the recommendations of educators how slush funds drive what goes on in washington dc and how bureaucrats continue to distort the issues related to health education several committee members argued against the predetermined outcomes of the committees work but they were silenced and the price they paid for speaking up is shocking the future of health care in america is critically dependent on our ability to educate people on how to establish and maintain their health but to make that possible we must learn from the mistakes showcased in a forty year retrospective of president nixons committee on health education

1968 was a year of protest in civil society prague paris chicago and a year of protest in sport after a world wide campaign the anti apartheid movement succeeded in barring south africa from the olympic games while us athletes from the olympic project for human rights used the medals podium to decry the racism of north america meanwhile students in mexico demonstrated against social priorities in mexico the host of the 1968 games these events contributed significantly to the rejection of the idea that sports are apolitical and stimulated the scholarly study of sport across the social sciences leading up to the beijing olympic games similar dynamics were played out across the globe while a campaign was underway to boycott the genocide olympics the volume to remember is to resist came out of a three day conference on sports human rights and social change hosted by the university of toronto forty years after mexico and eighty days before the beijing opening ceremony the contributions to this volume capture the memories of activists who were on the ground using sport as a site for the struggle for human rights and provide scholarly examinations of past and current human rights movements in sport this book was previously published as a special issue of sport in society
