the revelation explained an exposition text by text of the apocalypse of st john by f g smith the end of days the subject of prophecy should be of interest to every bible student its importance can not be overestimated by it we are enabled to ascertain our true position in this time world from the early dawn of creation inspiration has foretold with certainty the great facts connected with the history of god s chosen people by this means alone the divinity of jesus christ and the truth of our holy religion has been established in many minds for it is not in the power of mortals thus to vaticinate future events with such surprising accuracy have these predictions been fulfilled that even infidels ofttimes bear witness to their truthfulness behold the former things are come to pass and new things do i declare before they spring forth i tell you of them isa 42 9 for i am god and there is none else i am god and there is none like me declaring the end from the beginning and from ancient times the things that are not yet done isa 46 9 10 the revelation is a rich mine of prophetic truth the history of the current dispensation is there delineated in advance so perfectly that we can not but attribute its authorship to him who knoweth the end from the beginning and worketh all things after the counsel of his own will it was written for the special benefit of the people of god and we should give it prayerful consideration in the preparation for this work i have gleaned historical information from all the general and ecclesiastical histories encyclopedias etc within my reach and only regret that i had not access to a still greater number however knowing that large books are seldom read i determined in advance not to write an extensive work but to condense the subject matter as much as possible and therefore i have been obliged to omit much valuable material previously gathered for this reason many lines of prophetic truth penned by others of the sacred writers have been passed over in silence even though relating to the same events as certain symbolic visions in the revelation i have availed myself of all the helps and the commentaries within my reach in the study of this important subject however i have but seldom referred to the opinions of expositors in most cases their explanations are not based upon any established rule of interpretation and the definite laws of symbolic language are usually overlooked or disregarded ordinary readers of the revelation have always supposed that the only course for them was to take the opinion of some learned expositor and to believe on his authority and when they have found that equally learned and judicious men sustained the most opposite views they have been bewildered amid conflicting opinions and have decided that when such men were at issue it was useless for them to investigate while therefore i have made every available use of their opinions it was only for the purpose of forming my own and of enabling myself so to unfold the nature of the symbols that every one might see for himself the propriety of the interpretation given hilary of poitiers is perhaps the most neglected of the great patristic theologians in particular there has been little detailed analysis of the biblical interpretation that provides the central strand of his theological mind his work on st matthew is almost the first extant commentary in the latin west it is analyzed here with a survey for the first time of the growth of the commentary as a literary from the relation between exegesis and theological method in his later work on the trinity and the psalms shows the development of his techniques and their theological consequences the concluding sections provide a critical evaluation of the role of patristic material in contemporary theology with reference to the still intractable problem of the precise uses of the bible in theology

The Medieval Reception of Book Zeta of Aristotle's Metaphysics (2 Vol. Set) 1884

this volume examines mystical experiences as portrayed in various ways by authors such as philosophers mystics psychoanalysts writers and peasant women these mystical authors have throughout the ages attempted to convey the unsayable through writings paintings or oral stories the immediate experience of god is the primary source and ultimate goal of these mystical expressions this experience is essentially ineffable yet all mystical authors either consciously or unconsciously feel an urge to convey what they have undergone in the moments of rapture at the same time they are in the role of intermediaries the goal of their self expression either written painted or oral is to make others somehow understand or feel what they have experienced and to lead others toward the spiritual goal of human life this volume studies the mystical experiences and the way they have been described or portrayed in west european culture from antiquity to the present from an interdisciplinary perspective and approaches the concept of immediate experience in various ways historical discourse analyses the importance of the language of time cause and evaluation in both texts which students at secondary school are required to read and their own writing for assessment in contrast to studies which have denied that history has a specialised language caroline coffin demonstrates through a detailed study of historical texts that writing about the past requires different genres lexical and grammatical structures in this analysis language emerges as a powerful tool for making meaning in historical writing presupposing no prior knowledge of systemic functional linguistics this insightful book will be of interest to researchers in applied linguistics and discourse analysis as well as history educators the analytical literal translation of the new testament of the holy bible is different from any other version of the bible what makes it unique is the analytical literal translation alt enables the reader to come closer to what the new testament writers originally wrote in a far greater way than any other version it does so by providing four unique features the alt is a very literal translation of the greek new testament all words in the original text are translated nothing is omitted the grammar of the greek text is translated in a way that brings out nuances of the original text the alt is based on the newest and most accurate greek text the byzantine majority text this greek text is the most exact reproduction of the original manuscripts possible the alt includes aids in brackets within the text that help the reader to better understand the text these include alternative translations for words and phrases the figurative meanings of words and phrases modern day equivalents for measurement and monetary units and time designations explanatory notes now a few available versions might provide one or two of the above features but no version incorporates three of these features let alone all four so if you are serious about studying the bible wanting to know as exactly as possible what the original writers actually wrote the alt is the version to be using for your bible studies

the present edition of the book of fallacies is the first that follows bentham s own structure for the work and includes a great deal of material both in terms of the fallacies themselves and the illustrative matter that previous versions of the work have omitted the fallacies that concerned bentham were not logical errors of the sort identified by aristotle or commonplace misunderstandings of matters of fact but arguments deployed in political debate in particular in the british parliament in order to prevent reform bentham not only identified described and criticized the fallacious arguments in question which were all characterized by their irrelevancy but explained the sinister interests that led politicians to employ them and their supporters to accept them by exposing these political fallacies bentham hoped to prevent their employment in future and thereby to place political debate on its only proper ground namely considerations drawn from the principle of utility
