once you've learned the lingo, accepted the risk and met your other financial priorities, the next step to crypto investing is actually buying. In there are thousands of different cryptocurrencies, but experts say you should take a hard pass on most of them. Crypto values fluctuate by the hour, and this can be especially true for lesser-known coins. Even more established cryptocurrencies like Ethereum and Bitcoin experience their share of volatility, but at least have a greater record of increasing in value over time. The process for buying Ethereum or any other altcoin is the same as the process for buying Bitcoin, but we will use Bitcoin as an example throughout as it's the most valuable and most widely held crypto on the market right now. In this book, you will get to know the steps to get started as a new crypto investor.
