many modern christians yearn for a deeper spiritual life a relevant relationship with a god who still matters and who thinks we still matter however dallas brauninger tells us we are not good at listening and talking with god what we are good at is hurling questions at the almighty and brauninger says that questions are what we are all about if we are to continue to grow spiritually and so is confession we doubt we fear we stretch to the limits of our patience we wonder if tenacity will prevail or if we will sink we have moments of bliss and ponder anew the mystery of god we wonder and grieve about the world brauninger believes that question and confession are two forms of our prayer and for many of us these conversations with god are as brief and instant as an e mail in holy e mail she inventively casts fourteen sermons based on cycle a lectionary epistle texts in the form of extended e mail messages to god it s as if congregations and pastors were privy to someone s private ponderings that reflect our own spiritual roaming this volume is not only a creative resource for preachers it s also directed to the everyday person in the pew crafted to help hearers connect with god and each other these sermons address universal queries of the human soul by uniting sermon with prayer they re excellent for use as readings for personal meditation brauninger takes the reader on a spiritual journey from the beginning of advent through the transfiguration of our lord this book offers much food for thought as you prepare sermons not only will your mind be stretched your soul will be inspired as you read from the introduction clarence m clip higgins former conference minister nebraska and ohio conferences united church of christ dallas brauninger writes with the discernment of a saint and the ear of a poet these sermons are a joy to read they are a joy because they are crafted by one who is a master with language they are a joy because they track life carefully they are a joy because they expose deep recesses of the soul that light seldom reaches they are a joy because they prompt each of us to reflect on our own faith pilgrimage most of all they are a joy because they affirm god who offers joy not just to some but to all dr george s worcester conference minister nebraska conference united church of christ to me the hallmark of a good sermon has always been the new pathways of thought and insight which it opens up for me long after hearing or reading it these are good sermons rachel s scott bemidji minnesota dallas a brauninger a cum laude graduate of albion college received her master of divinity degree and an honorary doctor of divinity degree from chicago theological seminary a full time writer she has served churches in colorado and nebraska she and her the bible was at the center of jonathan edwards intellectual and ministerial life as an eighteenth century theologian pastor the scriptures were the focus of his work and the perspective through which he viewed his world edwards had a particular interest in the interpretation of the apocalypse devoting a notebook to the collection of observations and thoughts from his reading and reflection this book examines edwards interpretation of revelation 4 8 as seen in his working notebooks and theological treatises and sermons and then compares his views with some of his major contemporary biblical interpreters edwards employs a typological hermeneutical method arguing that typology is the language god uses to communicate and this language can be learned both from explicit typology in scripture as well as from the biblical author s implicit use of types in the application of this typological hermeneutics edwards not only interprets all of scripture christologically but also views the natural world and secular history as types of christ
