most journal articles edited volumes and monographs on youth language practices deal with one specific variety one geographical setting or with one specific continent this volume bridges these different studies and it approaches youth language from a much broader angle a global framework and a diversity of methodologies enable a wider perspective that gives room to comparisons of youth s manipulations and linguistic agency transnational communicative practices and language contact scenarios the research presented addresses structural features of everyday talk and text youth identity issues related to specific purposes and contexts and sociocultural emphases on ideologies and belonging combining insights into sociolinguistic and structural features of youth language the volume includes case studies from asia indonesia australia and oceania arnhem land new ireland south america the amazon chile argentina europe germany spain and africa uganda nigeria dr congo central african republic south africa it expands on existing publications and offers a more comparative and global approach without a division of youth s strategies in terms of geographical space or language family this collection including a conceptual introduction is of interest to scholars from several linguistic subfields working in different regional contexts as well as sociologists and anthropologists working in the field of adolescence and youth studies the covid 19 pandemic and the restrictions that came with it led to unprecedented disruptions in learner development and put them at risk of poor developmental outcomes it is thus important that the extent of the disruption on their development and the support needs of learners be investigated researching the impact of the disruption should focus on holistic development in this book the authors use multiple research approaches and methods of gathering data in their respective fields to examine the impact of the disruption and determine the support needs of learners data gathered through the different methods are processed and findings are presented the findings have implications for both practice and future research in the fields of inclusive education learner support educational psychology movement education life orientation and curriculum development in various african countries governments are forced to accept and or establish decentral structures in order to facilitate ways in which the poor sections of their population might gain influence on and access to development resources yet there is confusion about the role and functioning of such decentral structures as well as about sustainable political approaches to the top down transfer of government power in the context of local agendas the book highlights major aspects of the legitimacy of local power as presented by modern self government structures as well as traditional communal authorities although the main focus is placed on southern africa namibia teacher professional development and government programs for disadvantaged children zoos industrial paintings and dress designs as cultural artifacts presentations on these topics are the result of papers given at the annual meeting of the worldwide forum on education and culture founded 10 years ago in rome italy the organization regularly attracts some 100 scholars and practitioners in the fields of education literacy language learning communication and inter cultural studies from all five continents to its annual congress in rome these conferences as well as this up to date compilation of multi disciplinary academic papers are meant to highlight the growing need for culturally sensitive education that draws on the strengths of both traditional teaching methods and technology rich forms of instruction as well as a host of national and international programs designed to empower teachers and students alike engaged educators whose research and or critical discourse in classrooms all over the world has given rise to the present volume thus hope to share with a wider audience how they impart knowledge foster skills and nurture qualities in the next generation of global citizens that will enable them to negotiate their personal and professional lives in our modern world even though communities may no longer be characterized by physical distances as barriers to communicative interchanges perceived and real rifts between different cultures are nevertheless coming alarmingly close to preventing meaningful communication from bringing about true understanding at the individual and societal levels the ontogenesis of the worldwide forum on education and culture is seen here clearly in the perspectives and presentations of diverse academics who are dedicated to teaching and learning toward the greater goal as matthew arnold said in literature and science of knowing ourselves and the world at the time of his death in august 2012 neville alexander was undoubtedly one of south africa s foremost proponents of the philosophy of non racialism he had devoted his life to fighting against the evils of racism sexism and economic injustice he understood how these social realities not only divided but also ranked human beings in terms of human worth and value he saw how these realities diminished the whole society both the perpetrators and victims and so he gave over his life as a scholar and a political activist to challenging these realities this volume brings together the reflections of a group of activists and scholars on the significance of neville alexander to the cause of freedom and justice in south africa the reflections are essentially the keynote speeches and the responses to them that were made at a conference in alexander s honour held at the centre for non racialism and democracy at the nelson by more than 44 8 million south africans and almost 80 of the south african population use one of the african languages at home the most commonly spoken home language is isizulu which is spoken by 23 8 of the population followed by isixhosa 17 6 and afrikaans 13 3 although english is the home language of only 8 2 of the south african population it is still used as a lingua franca throughout the nation the eleven official languages are used by 99 of the country s population and those languages are all supposed to have equal rights belonging to these languages are english and afrikaans and nine other african languages sepedi sesotho setswana siswati tshivenda xitsonga isindebele isixhosa and isizulu there are also many other languages spoken in south africa like for example arabic german greek hindi tamil hebrew and many more some european languages like french german and portuguese are used in south africa but they are not nearly as influential as english the historical development of south africa has brought the question of language forward the country became aware of its unique language situation and the chances and problems which are connected to it after mandela many people developed a greater interest in smaller languages the paper is going to explore the language vitality of some of the 11 official south african languages dealing with the problem of language endangerment death and language revitalisation it is going to be seen whether the multilingualism which is propagandized by the government is or can be realised in real life due to the lack
