by the intense debate of sacha baron cohen s characters ali g and borat and the prophet muhammad cartoons published in the danish newspaper jyllands posten despite these intense debates commentary on humour in the academy lacks a clear way of connecting the serious and the humorous and a clear way of accounting for the serious impact of comic language the absence of a developed serious vocabulary with which to judge the humorous tends to encourage polarized debates which fail to account for the paradoxes of humour this book draws on the social theory of zygmont baumann to examine the linguistic structure of humour arguing that as a form of language similar to metaphor it is both unstable and unpredictable and structurally prone to act rhetorically that is to be convincing deconstructing the dominant form of racism aimed at black people in the us and that aimed at asians in the uk the rhetoric of racist humour shows how racist humour expresses and supports racial stereotypes in the us and uk while also exploring the forms of resistance presented by the humour of black and asian comedians to such stereotypes an engaging exploration of modern late modern and
