of the same kind we were all created to be alloses this book teaches you to believe that you are not different you are simply another of the kind that god has raised up already there are twelve principles of allos such as becoming an allos makes you humble makes you a member of a particular group gives you an easy road to ministry and creates an army of multiplied force dag heward mills also explains that allos is the key to anointing the key to solving problems the key to teamwork and the key to being led by the spirit the last two chapters explain how allos is also the key to a happy marriage and the key to the art of teaching and preaching the truth is whether you do this deliberately or not you are becoming an allos of somebody so why not become the allos of somebody you admire god a christian walks in the midst of many dangers snares and traps this book will open your eyes to the many subtle dangers that lie in wait to harm injure and destroy us help yourself save yourself and deliver yourself through this powerful book on spiritual dangers in a world supposedly characterized by the production of new differences and cultural permutations resulting from the twin processes of globalization and cultural syncretisation hardly anything has remained as obscure and theoretically under theorized as the very notion of the new itself an inherent relativity often accompanies any contemplation of what is new or old as well as the question at which point the old turns into the new syncretism as both process and description hinges largely on the assumption and premise that what is observed has appropriately or inappropriately mixed categories culture religion language that are intrinsically alien to each other such a syncretic constellation is bound to result in something that may be considered new any definition of syncretism the syncretisation process and the appropriation of the notion new as useful heuristic tools must indeed be located within specific local contexts as such terms are unlikely to serve as adequate descriptions of homogenous sets of phenomena syncretism as a process is intertwined with processes of contextualization against this backdrop this book seeks to unravel and demystify the ideology of the new on the basis of concrete case studies from various regions across africa and beyond do you love the lord that is an important question our lord jesus christ asked peter peter do you love me why is your love for god something that we need to discuss jesus says the greatest commandment is that you should love the lord your god with all your heart with all your soul and with all your mind sometimes there are circumstances thrown together and presented to you by the lord that are simply tests tests to prove your love for the lord if you love the lord prove it by passing the tests of love another amazing book by renowned author dag heward mills which will set you thinking and asking yourself the all important question do i really love the lord how do you fight an enemy that you cannot see this question is the reason why dag heward mills wrote this book because it is impossible to fight an enemy who can see you when you are not even aware of them the key to success in your church or anywhere is loyalty in leadership and loyalty the affect of a loyal person on business or ministry are tremendous qualifications do not impress me as much as loyalty does says heward mills the author exposes deceptions of disloyalty and as usual provides great practical examples and reveals the keys to develop godly loyalty the research that is shared combined with the bishop s personal experience provides the reader with an excellent insight into the reality of leadership the six manifestations of disloyalty seven methods of dealing with disloyalty and the basic facts of loyalty are discussed jesus used the phrase weeping and gnashing on five different occasions in the bible it is a prophetic warning about the pain the anger the sorrow the regret the remorse and the sense of loss that will be felt on getting into heaven without being ready for it all those who end up weeping and gnashing their teeth would have missed out on the eternal rewards they could have had in heaven they will miss the joy they could have had and they will miss the crowns of glory renowned author dag heward mills in his usual unequivocal style describes the frightening reality of how many will regret the lost opportunities while on earth you must do whatever you can to avoid becoming one of the people who will be weeping and gnashing their teeth in regret the tipping point david and goliath in this book the author shows the believer a master key to receiving spiritual physical financial and material breakthrough philippians is considered god s spiritual manual on joy and rejoicing but it s more than that this bible study answers the question everyone is asking what would jesus do it is god s revelation on how christians should think in a world whose values and priorities are contrary and often hostile to god and his people this study will teach you how to escape much of the unbiblical thinking that dominates our world lesson titles include the surrendered mind the servant mind the settled mind the sanctified mind in sub saharan africa over the last two decades there has been an explosion of christianity this book sets out to identify its particular character focusing on a particular place greater accra the capital of ghana paul gifford examines a wide range of accra s new churches giving priority to mega churches every dimension discourse theological vision worship rituals music media involvement use of the bible conventions finances clientele is analysed gifford argues that this christianity is not otherworldly its emphasis is on success achievement wealth here and now yet within this general orientation there is diversity at one end of the spectrum are churches that building on the traditional religious imagination see demonic forces everywhere blocking personal success in the churches the key factor is the special mandofuged who is understood to have the anointing to conquer these forces to reverse the curse that is holding the believer back at the other end is a strain of this new christianity that discounts spiritual forces and sees victory resulting from the believer s own education and skills and from transforming culture the book also joins the debate over the role of this christianity in modernizing economic and political structures it sets the scene by describing ghana s political and economic situation in the decades when these churches were proliferating and outlines the current debate on the reasons for africa s economic plight it is argued that although focusing on success and wealth can provide motivation in circumstances where it is so easy to despair the pervasive emphasis on miracles militates against any natural fostering of a new work ethic as for their political role some churches are easily co opted others challenge the government but for spiritual reasons that provide little incentive to grapple with issues of governance by contrast gifford finds one important church encouraging change of the entire political culture no other book has set forth the complex nature of africa s new christianity with such clarity or offered such a searching analysis of its power to tackle africa s predicament gifford knows his subject totally has vast and wide ranging sympathy for his subjects though without being uncritical and explores these themes with admirable intelligence this book is simply the best thing out there philip jenkins gifford s is an uncompromising hard nosed study n o again look at the subject without at least a respectful nod in his direction lamin sanneh in ghana s new christianity paul gifford considers the explosion of christianity in sub saharan africa by focusing on one place greater accra ghana gifford examines every dimension of these new churches and mega churches including their discourse theological vision worship rituals music media involvement use of the bible finances and clientele ghana s new christianity sets religious devotion into ghana s political and economic situation and focuses on how fervent belief in success and wealth in the here and now can provide motivation to change in circumstances where it is so easy to despair no other book brings forth the complex nature of africa s new christianity with such clarity or offers such a searching analysis of its power to tackle africa s predicament in sub saharan africa over the last two decades there has been an explosion of christianity this book sets out to identify its particular character focusing on a particular place greater accra the capital of ghana paul gifford examines a wide range of accra s new churches giving priority to mega churches every dimension discourse theological vision worship rituals music media involvement use of the bible conventions finances clientele is analysed gifford argues that this christianity is not otherworldly its emphasis is on success achievement wealth here and now yet within this general orientation there is diversity at one end of the spectrum are churches that building on the traditional religious imagination see demonic forces everywhere blocking personal success in the churches the key factor is the special man of god who is understood to have the anointing to conquer these forces to reverse the curse that is holding the believer back at the other end is a strain of this new christianity that discounts spiritual forces and sees victory resulting from the believer s own education and skills and from transforming culture the book also joins the debate over the role of this christianity in modernizing economic and political structures it sets the scene by describing ghana s political and economic situation in the decades when these churches were proliferating and outlines the current debate on the reasons for africa s economic plight it is argued that although focusing on success and wealth can provide motivation in circumstances where it is so easy to despair the pervasive emphasis on miracles militates against any natural fostering of a new work ethic as for their political role some churches are easily co opted others challenge the government but for spiritual reasons that provide little incentive to grapple with issues of governance by contrast gifford finds one important church encouraging change of the entire political culture no other book has set forth the complex nature of africa s new christianity with such clarity or offered such a searching analysis of its power to tackle africa s predicament
