the nature and consequences of this resistance are examined in detail especially as they relate to the context of a society in which estranged labor in one form or another is the dominant characteristic for most members throughout the book the subtle pressures the cliques the vitality the boredom and the ever present humor of school life are explored by integrating the insights of habermas with the theories of marx the author is able to examine the tension between the reified knowledge of the school and the regenerative knowledge of the students in a sensitive ethnography which captures the student world in ways which have been missed in the past excerpt from the sentence method of teaching reading writing and spelling a manual for teachers first spelling my question was
