this collection focuses on 1970s films from a variety of countries and from the marginal to the mainstream which by tackling various difficult subjects have proved to be controversial in one way or another it is not an uncritical celebration of the shocking and the subversive but an attempt to understand why this decade produced films which many found shocking and what it was that made them shocking to certain audiences to this end it includes not only films that shocked the conventionally minded such as hard core pornography but also those that outraged liberal opinion for example death wish and dirty harry the book does not simply cast a critical light on a series of controversial films which have been variously maligned misinterpreted or just plain ignored but also assesses how their production values narrative features and critical receptions can be linked to the wider historical and social forces that were dominant during this decade furthermore it explores how these films resonate in our own historical moment replete as it is with shocks of all kinds
