Between Two Worlds: The autos sacramentales of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz 2015-06-12

the question of why the cooperation of jews with the persian and ptolemaic empires achieved some success and why it failed with regard to the seleucids and the romans even turning into military hostility against them has not been sufficiently answered the present volume intends to show from the perspectives of hebrew bible judaic and ancient history studies that the contrasting jewish attitudes towards foreign powers were not only dependent on specific political circumstances they were also interrelated with the emergence of multiple early jewish identities which all found a basis in the torah the prophets or the psalms this book reconstructs the tradition of dialectic from aristotle's topics its founding text up to its renaissance in 16th century italy and focuses on the role of dialectic in the production of knowledge aristotle defines dialectic as a structured exchange of questions and answers and thus links it to dialogue and disputation while cicero develops a mildly skeptical version of dialectic identifies it with reasoning in utramque partem and connects it closely
