on god and other unfinished things is a poetry collection and also scraps of thought from goenawan mohamad a word scraps is apt for the task at hand because this is hardly a full script each of its parts was written with something close to brevity a cut or a remnant of sorts of a larger piece or notes taken while traveling all 99 of these scraps can be read sometimes as parts that support or refute one another and at other times as pieces that stand on their own all were written in times when god seemed to be irrefutable and religion spirituality gained ever more currency in the lives of many dispensing strength and illuminating the path ahead but times which were at the same time threatening unfinished austen examines four texts that jane austen left incomplete catharine or the bower 1792 3 lady susan 1795 the watsons 1803 4 and sanditon 1817 none of them published till well after her death since very little in manuscript form survives from the six famous novels these four manuscript texts offer insight into the novelist in the process of creation they also problematize the romance plot prominent in the published novels by presenting this in a nebulous or incipient state that underlines its artificiality these texts sometimes show how the romance plot is inflected by the financial condition in which young marriageable women can find themselves moreover the stories other than catharine have aroused the interest of many later writers including writers for theatre and screen who are eager to complete or to amplify them they may do this through developing the stories to some kind of dénouement perhaps more intriguingly however these texts induce some writers to question the very enterprise of concluding an unfinished text

400 united irishmen and fellow rebels brought the spirit of irish rebellion down under in the aftermath of the irish rebellion of 1798 and changed australia forever at castle hill in 1804 this army of shadows carried on where they left off but during bligh s overthrow in 1808 they stood back from a fight that was not theirs the political irish played a central role in the developing colony their professions trades and skills made them useful as clerks storekeepers and teachers and fitted them to be overseers and constables and helped bring self sufficiency to the still fragile colonial economy they remained revolutionaries only they negotiated change rather than raised warlike rebellion through their open defiance and quiet manipulation of authority the harp new strung resonates to this day in the australian ethos that united irishmen helped to create book cover not writing is always a relief and sometimes a pleasure writing about what cannot be written by contrast is the devil's own job in this unusual text a blend of essay fiction and literary genealogy south african novelist ivan vladislavic explores the problems and potentials of the fictions he could not bring himself to write drawing from his notebooks of the past twenty years vladislavic records here a range of ideas for stories unsettled accounts he calls them or case studies of failure and examines where they came from and why they eluded him in the process he reveals some of the principles that matter to him as a writer and pays tribute to the writers such as walser percec Sterne and delillo who have been important to him as both a reader and an author at the heart of the text like a brightly lit room in a field of debris stands vladislavic s loss library itself the shelves laden with books that have never been written on the page vladislavic tells us every loss may yet be recovered an extraordinary book about both the nature of novels and the process of writing the loss library will appeal to anyone seeking to understand the almost magical and mythical experience of breathing life into a new work of fiction praise for vladislavic in the tradition of elias canetti a tour de force of the imagination andré brink the prose is stunning it gives the impression of the words and the phrases having been caught from the inside as though the author lives on the other side of language where every word is strange and dancing and the way they are put together produces complicated patterned exchanges like minuets tony morphet
