when louisiana s most haunted b b opens its doors to a debunker a mysterious murderer settled the dispute in this paranormal cozy mystery when holly davis converted a historic plantation house into a charming bed and breakfast she had no idea that its most popular feature would be the resident ghost

but after the tv show inquiring minds airs its indisputably haunting footage the reservation line is ringing off the hook there s only one small problem the ghost of her not so dearly departed husband burl appears to have departed holly is willing to keep up a spooky pretense for the sake of business but after an outspoken debunker challenges the show s credibility holly is sure she ll be exposed as a charlatan surprisingly the debunker suddenly becomes a believer after he s pushed off the widow s walk to his death and rises as a ghost now his inquiring mind wants to know who murdered him when he asks for holly s help she can t say no but this time it s her turn to watch her step because if the killer gets spooked the next ghost haunting the b b may be its owner how did plants get to be the way they are why do they have pretty flowers how different would things have been if the wrong kind of pollinators had got the upper hand why are latin names so complicated and why latin anyway why is a weed free lawn an ecological impossibility this entertaining book gives the answers to these questions and many more it shows how a little botanical knowledge can bring not just better results but peace of mind and that losing sleep over such traditional gardening bogeys as weeds pests and pruning is not necessarily the best course in this new edition ken thompson grabs the opportunity to explain why any old plant will do for companion planting but also that it can do as much harm as good and why planting by the moon is complete and utter nonsense

a no holds barred criticism on the state of today s christian broadcasting a book for every person who s ever flipped past the religious channel on cable and thought i haven t the faintest clue what s going on there or that church doesn't seem like my church at all or even wow so that's what happened to Kirk Cameron with the personalities of Christian broadcasting constantly in the news talking about every major issue from abortion to culture to war and with the amount of influence their movements have on the political discourse in this country to understand more about the stop on the television dial is to understand more about America's religious landscape on an average day the largest religious broadcast channel in the country reaches millions of viewers and features programming from figures such as Benny Hinn, Ted Jakes, Pat Robertson, Paul and Jan Crouch, Jess Duplantis, Joel Osteen and others yet despite its presence in well over 50 million households many have little conception of what kind of faith happens there Nadia Bolz Weber a Lutheran seminarian and former stand-up comic who's never before watched religious broadcasting spends 24 hours in front of the TV immersing herself in the messages and culture to be found on the part of the dial bolstered by visits from guests such as Rabbi Her 8 year old daughter Unitarian friend and others salvation on the small screen is Bolz Weber's chronicle augmented by after the fact research of a huge but unknown or mysterious to many branch of religious culture
