artifacts that shape cultural and individual subjectivity as mass produced products sold to a niche market of parents educators and young children and as aesthetic objects works of literature and art with specific conventions examining the reasons such books are so popular with young readers as well as the reasons that some adults challenge and censor them the volume considers the ways early readers contribute to the construction of younger children as readers thinkers consumers and as gendered raced classed subjects it also addresses children s texts that have been translated and sold around the globe examining them as part of an increasingly transnational children s media culture that may add to or supplant regional ethnic and national children's literatures and cultures while this collection focuses mostly on books written in english and often aimed at children living in the us it is important to acknowledge that these early readers are a major us cultural export influencing the reading habits and development of children across the globe
