9 caliper logs 9 1 introduction university of leeds Apr 27 2024 the caliper log is a tool for measuring the diameter and shape of a borehole it uses a tool which has 2 4 or more extendable arms the arms can move in and out as the tool is withdrawn from the borehole and the movement is converted into an electrical signal by a potentiometer 18 the spontaneous potential log 18 1 introduction Mar 26 2024 the spontaneous potential is composed of contributions that are electrochemical arise from electrical interactions between the various chemical constituents of the rocks and fluids and electrokinetic arise from the movement of electrically charged ions in the fluid relative to the fixed rock

16 the sonic or acoustic log 16 1 introduction Jan 24 2024 16 1 introduction the sonic or acoustic log measures the travel time of an elastic wave through the formation this information can also be used to derive the velocity of elastic waves through the formation its main use is to provide information to support and calibrate seismic data and to derive the porosity of a formation the main uses are chapter 1 Dec 23 2023 formation evaluation msc course notes introduction chapter 1 introduction 1 1 introduction this course aims to provide an understanding of the behaviour of fluids in reservoirs and the use of core analysis in the evaluation of reservoir potential petrophysics msc course notes chapter 4 fluid saturation and capillary pressure free download as pdf file pdf text file txt or read online for free the document discusses fluid saturation and capillary pressure in hydrocarbon reservoirs petrophysics msc course notes pdf scribd Oct 21 2023 this document is a course notes for a petrophysics msc program it contains 20 chapters covering topics such as porosity permeability capillary pressure various well logging tools and methods including resistivity sonic neutron and density logs petrophysics msc course notes download free pdf scribd Sep 20 2023 the document provides an introduction to petrophysics and formation evaluation it discusses how geologists and petrophysicists work together to analyze subsurface formations using data from wells cores and logs the petrophysicist s goal is to differentiate between oil gas and water bearing formations and estimate hydrocarbon volumes the master of science msc degree a guide coursera Aug 19 2023 in an msc degree programme you ll advance your knowledge in a more technical analytical and at times practical way gaining specific skills you can apply to further your career in a number of in demand industries what is an msc degree the msc degree builds on an undergraduate education what is an msc degree and should you get one coursera Jul 18 2023 an msc is the standard master s qualification for courses in stem and some social science subjects in europe and india as you take msc courses you ll focus on a specific area of interest in detail

12 the spectral gamma ray log 12 1 introduction Jun 17 2023 the spectral gamma ray log is commonly given the symbol sgr a typical spectral gamma ray tool is shown in fig 12 1 12 2 principles it will be remembered that the amplitude of the output from the gamma ray sensor is proportional to the energy of the incident gamma ray
