by rolling stone as the best football memoir of all time nate jackson told his story face down on the field now in fantasy man he s flat on his back six years have passed since the former denver broncos tight end wore a helmet and every day he drifts further from the nfl guy the sanctioned violence guy the psychopath who ran head first into other psychos for money but nate hasn t quite left the game bed ridden by a recent surgery to remove bone fragments in his ankle he s trying to defend his title as top dog in bunny 5 ball one of the millions of leagues captivating america through modern fantasy football the interactive human poker game started by rotisserie leagues boosted by espn and yahoo and now elevated to that rarefied world of vaguely legal internet gambling by fanduel and draftkings.com and this time it isn't a 300 pound wall of flesh rushing to crush his spine it's worse exploring the fantasy and the reality of professional football after you've left the field fantasy man is as funny self-deprecating and shockingly honest as slow getting up the russian revolution in 1917 and ensuing civil war caused a massive exodus of upper class intelligentsia and military families from russia the author's parents were part of that exodus having stayed on until the very end of the russian civil war during which the author's father major general paul petroff played an important role in the struggle against the bolsheviks they lived in northern china shanghai japan and after years of wandering arrived in california where they became u.s. citizens and part of the american establishment as you leaf through the memoir you will find that the family witnessed the war of the chinese warlords the militarization of japan where the author's father had a law suit against the government for the recovery of gold bullion deposited by him for safekeeping with the japanese military mission in 1920 the air raids over tokyo post war american politics the cold war the difficult years of the vietnam war debate and the iraq war carefully documented from family archival materials the memoir is a richly woven account of an odyssey that spanned eighty five years of the author's life from harbin china to the san francisco bay area in california when mo's therapist suggested she get an after school job to help with her depression she didn't expect to end up as the photographer at the easter bunny photo set she also didn't expect to befriend billy the man in the bunny suit an extremely tattooed ex-gangster probably mo's therapist also didn't lay out the risks like how mo's shoplifting habit might make things difficult with her mall cop dad or how the cute changing room attendant at pandora's box might reveal to the world that mo's queer before she's ready or how it all might end with mo getting arrested well whatever her therapist expected mo's about to tell her the truth for maybe the first time because after it all blows up she's all mo's got besides her only real friend the easter bunny at the mall five nights at freddy's fans won't want to miss this pulse pounding collection of twitched excitedly as they detected the smell of food in this case baking coming from the kitchen bertie threw poor alfie aside as he leapt out of bed and pulled on his dressing gown and slippers alfie lay in a heap on the floor as bertie flew down the corridor to the kitchen and towards the smell of baking that was coming from it when bertie reached the kitchen mum was nearly up to her elbows in flour and was kneading the dough for bread rolls and splits as part of her preparations for this afternoon's tea party she had invited some of her friends over for a girly afternoon of reminiscing about the olden days when they were young unfortunately mum had been unable to employ someone to look after bertie so he would be sitting in on the tea party a thought that filled mum with absolute dread bertie scampered across the kitchen and clambered up onto an area of the work surface that did not have flour on it at the corner of his eye bertie espied three bowls of butter cream one was ordinary butter cream for the butterfly buns which had just come out of the oven one had coffee flavouring and one had chocolate butter cream the last two were for two sponge cakes that were cooling on a couple of racks nearby bertie stretched out his paw and was about to dip it in one of the bowls when he felt a sharp slap on his paw mum had seen a beige furry paw coming towards one of her mixing bowls knowing whose it was she reached out just in time to prevent bertie from dipping a paw or two into the icing bertie squealed as he withdrew his paw and rubbed it mum had hurt him and he did not like it gently mum lifted bertie down from the worktop and urged him to take his bath after wiping her floury hands she ran his bath and laid out his clothes in the bedroom she felt sorry for alfie who was still lying on the floor where bertie had left him she picked his bear up made his bed and tidied up and then went back to prepare bertie's breakfast meanwhile bertie was laying in his bath telling fred his duck about the day that was to come and how he was looking forward to eating the tea that mum was in the midst of preparing mum was still baking when bertie having had his bath came out for his breakfast mum had made the bread rolls and splits and was now preparing sausage rolls and vol au vents bertie's mouth watered and when he had eaten his boiled egg and soldiers bertie begged to be allowed to help with the tea party gently mum advised that it might be better if bertie went outside to play but warned him not to get dirty bertie played with his football and dreamed that he was scoring in the world cup finals as he played he gave a running commentary to anyone who was listening unfortunately there was no one there but bertie did not care he was having such a good time in the midst of his numerous celebrations after scoring a classic goal bertie heard his mother calling him obediently bertie trotted inside mum had iced the cakes and sponges which left the mixing bowls with the leftover butter creams now licking out bowls was right up his street bertie virtually climbed inside the bowls to ensure that every last scrape was out of them when he had finished he was covered in butter cream of all flavours from the tips of his ears to the ends of his feet bertie was filthy mum was far from happy as she stripped bertie of his clothing and placed him in his second bath of the morning his shorts and tee shirt were placed straight in the wash and a fresh towel was laid out for him to dry himself mum searched out another set of shorts and a tee shirt whilst bertie smiled as he lay once again in the bath with fred meanwhile mum had finished all the baking and had placed the food under cloths ready to bring down to the lounge l mayfield bunny the
