winner of the national book critics circle award writing criticism is to writing fiction and poetry as hugging the shore is to sailing in the open sea writes john updike in his foreword to this collection of literary considerations but the sailor doth protest too much this collection begins somewhere near deep water with a flotilla of short fiction humor pieces and personal essays and even the least of the reviews here those that come about and draw even closer to the land with another nine point quotation are distinguished by a novelist s style insight and accuracy not just surface sparkle indeed as james atlas commented the most substantial critical articles on melville hawthorne and whitman go out as far as updike s fiction they are the sort of ambitious scholarly reappraisal not seen in this country since the death of edmund wilson with hugging the shore michiko kakutani wrote updike established himself as a major and enduring critical voice indeed as the pre eminent critic of his generation
