these time tested ideas will reignite your passion for being a dad you ll find the inspiration and know how you need to engage with daughters and sons in the best ways possible and make your home their favorite place to be example in this ebook chapter i eastern seas my first cruise as a midshipman in the navy of the united states began a short month too late for me to share in the honors of the mexican war in other words i came in at the foot of the service with all the grades above me fresh stocked with comparatively young and vigorous officers as a consequence the rate of promotion was so slow that the summer of 1851 found me at the age of twenty four still a middie with my lieutenancy ever receding like a will o the wisp into the future had i chosen a naval career through necessity i might have continued to endure but to the equal though younger heir of one of the largest plantations in south carolina the pay of even a post captain would have been of small concern it is therefore hardly necessary to add that i had been lured into the service by the hope of winning fame and glory that my choice should have fallen upon the navy rather than the army may have been due to the impulse of heredity according to family traditions and records one of my ancestors was the famous english seaman will adams who served queen elizabeth in the glorious fight against the spanish armada and afterwards piloted a dutch ship through the dangerous straits of magellan and across the vast unchartered expanse of the pacific to the mysterious island empire then known as cipango or zipangu history itself verifies that wonderful voyage and the still more wonderful fact of my ancestor s life among the japanese as one of the nobles and chief counsellors of the great emperor iyeyasu so highly was the advice of the bold englishman esteemed by the emperor that he was never permitted to return home for many years he dwelt honorably among that most peculiar of oriental peoples aiding freely the few english and dutch who ventured into the remote eastern seas he had aided even the fanatical portuguese and spaniards who upon his arrival had sought to have him and his handful of sick and starving shipmates executed as pirates so it was he lived and died a japanese noble and was buried with all honor with the blood of such a man in my veins it is not strange that i turned to the sea yet it is no less strange that three years in the service should bring me to an utter weariness of the dull naval routine notable as were the achievements of our navy throughout the world in respect to exploration and other peaceful triumphs it has ever surprised me that in the absence of war and promotion i should have lingered so long in my inferior position in war the humiliation of servitude to seniority may be thrust from thought by the hope of winning superior rank through merit deprived of this opportunity i could not but chafe under my galling subjection to the commands of men never more than my equals in social rank and far too often my inferiors the climax came after a year on the china station to which i had obtained an assignment in the hope of renewed action against the arrogant celestials disappointed in this and depressed by a severe spell of fever contracted at honkong i resigned the service at shanghai and took passage for new york by way of san francisco and the horn on the american clipper sea flight we cleared for the sandwich islands august the twenty first 1851 the second noon found us safe across the treacherous bars of the yangtse kiang and headed out across the eastern sea the southwest monsoon bowling us along at a round twelve knots to be continue in this ebook a young girl s tragic loss will shape her dreams and her future 1930 douro valley portugal twelve year old catherine is watching the rabalo race in porto when the sound of a shot being fired changes her life forever her beloved mother mistress for some years to walter shellard a bristol based wine and port merchant has received distressing news that her lover walter has married a wealthy heiress in her anguish she takes her own life leaving poor catherine alone and heartbroken angry and grieving catherine is sent to live under the guardianship of her eccentric aunt lopa in a small farmhouse high above the rich vineyards of the douro valley here she learns to adapt to her new life and her strange aunt but still blames her father a man she barely knows for her mother s tragic example in this ebook chapter i eastern seas my first cruise as a midshipman in the navy of the united states began a short month too late for me to share in the honors of the mexican war in other words i came in at the foot of the service with all the grades above me fresh stocked with comparatively young and vigorous officers as a consequence the rate of promotion was so slow that the summer of 1851 found me at the age of twenty four still a middie with my lieutenancy ever receding like a will o the wisp into the future had i chosen a naval career through necessity i might have continued to endure but to the equal though younger heir of one of the largest plantations in south carolina the pay of even a post captain would have been of small concern it is therefore hardly necessary to add that i had been lured into the service by the hope of winning fame and glory that my choice should have fallen upon the navy rather than the army may have been due to the impulse of heredity according to family traditions and records one of my ancestors was the famous english seaman will adams who served queen elizabeth in the glorious fight against the spanish armada and afterwards piloted a dutch ship through the dangerous straits of magellan and across the vast unchartered expanse of the pacific to the mysterious island empire then known as cipango or zipangu history itself verifies that wonderful voyage and the still more wonderful fact of my ancestor s life among the japanese as one of the nobles and chief counsellors of the great emperor iyeyasu so highly was the advice of the bold englishman esteemed by the emperor that he was never permitted to return home for many years he dwelt honorably among that most peculiar of oriental peoples aiding freely the few english and dutch who ventured into the remote eastern seas he had aided even the fanatical portuguese and spaniards who upon his arrival had sought to have him and his handful of sick and starving shipmates executed as pirates so it was he lived and died a japanese noble and was buried with all honor with the blood of such a man in my veins it is not strange that i turned to the sea yet it is no less strange that three years in the service should bring me to an utter weariness of the dull naval routine notable as were the achievements of our navy throughout the world in respect to exploration and other peaceful triumphs it has ever surprised me that in the absence of war and promotion i should have lingered so long in my inferior position in war the humiliation of servitude to seniority may be thrust from thought by the hope of winning superior rank through merit deprived of this opportunity i could not but chafe under my galling subjection to the commands of men never more than my equals in social rank and far too often my inferiors the climax came after a year on the china station to which i had obtained an assignment in the hope of renewed action against the arrogant celestials disappointed in this and depressed by a severe spell of fever contracted at honkong i resigned the service at shanghai and took passage for new york by way of san francisco and the horn on the american clipper sea flight we cleared for the sandwich islands august the twenty first 1851 the second noon found us safe across the treacherous bars of the yangtse kiang and headed out across the eastern sea the southwest monsoon bowling us along at a round twelve knots to be continue in this ebook
