2 Corinthians, Volume 40 2017-10-10 pastors and students will appreciate this new edition with its up to date bibliography and discussion of pertinent issues in this full revision and update of the book of second corinthians dr ralph p martin addresses the scholarly questions about the text of the epistle and the significance of paul s thought for christian living and ministry in a penetrating analysis of paul s responses to the various crises within the corinthian congregation dr martin gives insight into the particular problems of christianity as expressed in the hedonistic cosmopolitan setting of corinth he shows how paul s attempt to clearly distinguish the gospel from hellenistic judaism and hellenistic jewish christian ideology results in a moving statement of the christian message rather than the theology of glory prevalent in corinth paul articulates his theology of the cross as a theology of weakness of servanthood and ministry what was at stake at corinth says dr martin was nothing less than the essence of the kerygma as in expressed in the way of the cross for proclamation and daily living new sections on the collection and rhetoric have been added and the issues of composition and social setting of the letter have been included along with topics such as the spirit the opponents paul s theology and the resurrection in this epistle the word biblical commentary series offers the best in critical scholarship firmly committed to the authority of scripture as divine revelation it is perfect for scholars students of the bible ministers and anyone who wants a theological understanding of scripture

Paul's Line of Thought in 2 Corinthians 4:16-5:10 2005 fredrik lindgard analyzes verses 4 16 5 10 in 2 corinthians verses which have often been used to argue that paul s eschatology developed over time or to ascertain whether or not paul is an anthropological dualist paul s concern is how the corinthians see him his aim is to show them that he is frank and open to them and that his attitude to adversities confirms that he is a real apostle he reveals his thoughts and emotions when facing suffering the author shows that the section and its context do not support the view that paul changed or developed his eschatology instead the text displays the unsystematic character of paul s eschatology concepts which paul normally uses separately occur side by side without elaboration although paul uses both dualistic and holistic language the dominating feature is dualism the analysis shows that a wide rhetorical approach can be useful when trying to understand paul
