Bulletino Senese Di Storia Patria 2013-05-30 this volume brings together a selection of the papers on the theme of the papacy and the crusades delivered at the 7th congress of the society for the study of the crusades and the latin east after the introduction by michel balard the first papers examine aspects of crusader terminology the next section deals with events and perceptions in the west including papers on the crusades against the albigensians and frederick ii and on the situation in the iberian peninsula there follow studies on relations between crusaders and the local populations in the byzantine world after 1204 and frankish greece and in cilician armenia while a final pair looks at papal interventions in poland and scandinavia

Dynamics of Morphological Productivity 2010-02-01 emlyn eisenach uses a wide range of sources including the richly detailed and previously unexplored records of nearly two hundred marriage related disputes from the bishop s court of verona to illuminate family and social relations in early modern northern italy arguing against the common emphasis on the growth of law and government in this period her study emphasizes the fluidity of the principles that governed marriage and its dissolution and deepens our understanding of the patriarchal family and its complex relationship with gender and status during the sixteenth century peopled by characters from across the social spectrum of the city of verona and its contado eisenach s study moves between stories about specific individuals serving girls seeking honorable marriage through the unlikely route of concubinage peasant men in search of independence from their fathers and aristocratic wives seeking revenge against adulterous husbands and broader analyses of social economic and geographical patterns of behavior she shows how the veronese at all social levels attempted to better their familial and personal fortunes by creatively molding wedding rituals to fit their particular circumstances or engaging in the significant but until now little understood practices of concubinage clandestine marriage or informal marriage dissolution eisenach also evaluates the first half century of religious reforms in verona as the leading pre tridentine bishop gian matteo giberti and his successors challenged common practices and understandings in sermons treatises confessionals and court emphasizing the limitations of what the religious authorities could impose on the people she explores how learned and popular notions of marriage family and gender shaped each other as they were put into action in the strategies of individual veronese

DK Eyewitness Travel Guide: Italy 1880 presents excavation data and pottery finds from the stratigraphy underneath the cathedral of siena the surveys were conducted between 2000 2003 the ultimate goal is to trace a view of the settlement types and economic framework that has affected the hill of the cathedral from the classical age to the late middle ages

Il Concilio Ecumenico Vaticano 1861 between the twelfth and the sixteenth centuries women assumed public roles of unprecedented prominence in italian religious culture legally subordinated politically excluded socially limited and ideologically disdained women s active participation in religious life offered them access to power in all its forms these essays explore the involvement of women in religious life throughout northern and central italy and trace the evolution of communities of pious women as they tried to achieve their devotional goals despite the strictures of the ecclesiastical hierarchy the contributors examine relations between holy women their devout followers and society at large including contributions from leading figures in a new generation of italian historians of religion this book shows how women were able to carve out broad areas of influence by carefully exploiting the institutional church and by astutely manipulating religious percepts
