few of us will ever know the satisfaction of becoming number one in our professions in music the odds are astronomical musicologists tell us that in the ideal or abstract situation an individual is genetically predisposed with a special gift works at it from infancy isolated from distractions and denied any choice in the matter until the discipline develops into an almost monomaniacal drive for perfection buddy rich achieved that perfection the cost was very high this book was written in the form of a diary researched by the author as he traveled with buddy rich to various cities in the us canada england and scotland it was not intended to be an authoritative analysis of an eminent contemporary musician or a detailed biographical treatment it is a selective account of representative events in the life of a musical genius an attempt to reflect aspects of his complex personality and the role played by his family friends and enemies real and imagined
