trained in human sign language and we visit lemsip a research facility in new york state that has no barbed wire no alarms and no protesters chanting outside because its director jan moor jankowski listens to activists with respect and treats his animals humanely and along the way blum offers us insights into the many side issues involved the intense battle to win over school kids fought by both sides and the danger of transplanting animal organs into humans as it stands now blum concludes the research community and its activist critics are like two different nations nations locked in a long bitter seemingly intractable political standoff but if you listen hard there really are people on both sides willing to accept and work within the complex middle when they can be freely heard then we will have progressed to another place beyond this time of hostilities in the monkey wars deborah blum gives these people their voice includes part 1 number 1 2 books and pamphlets including serials
