in 2015 the aam aadmi party aap was elected to govern delhi promising to improve public services including education through government schools that would be the equal of private school provision media reports along with the party s re election in 2020 suggest strong public confidence that aap are delivering on that promise but is this success reflected by experience in schools delhi s education revolution offers a critical evaluation of the aap s education reforms by exploring policy and practice through the eyes of one key group the government school teachers tasked with making the aap s pledge a reality drawing on 110 research interviews conducted via zoom during the covid pandemic in the summer of 2020 teachers explain how the reforms have changed their profession and practice and whether education really has improved for children of all backgrounds analysis of views about critical issues such as inclusion and the pressure of achievement targets in classrooms that often contain more than 50 students informs their observations about the reform programme itself the study paints a more qualified picture of success than suggested elsewhere and makes a valuable contribution to the understanding of education reforms in india and most especially in delhi india s landmark right of children to free and compulsory education act 2009 guarantees education to all children aged 6 14 years the act mandates specific student teacher ratios and emphasizes teacher quality writing this into legislation took seven years but the seven years since has proven that ensuring effective teachers are recruited and placed in all schools in a time bound manner is considerably more challenging this report takes a detailed look at the complexity of the teacher management landscape in elementary and secondary schools in nine indian states on a daily basis the administrative machinery of these states has to manage between 19 000 to nearly a million teachers in different types of schools and employment contracts and cope with recruiting thousands more and distributing them equitably across schools this report examines the following issues official requirements for becoming a schoolteacher in india policies and processes for teacher recruitment deployment and transfers salaries and benefits of teachers professional growth of teachers and grievance redressal mechanisms for teachers for the first time in india this report compares and contrasts stated policy with actual practice in teacher management in the country using a combination of primary and secondary data in so doing the report reveals the hidden challenges and the nature of problems faced by administrators in attempting to build an effective teacher workforce which serves the needs of all of india s 200 million school children the report examines states with varying characteristics thus generating knowledge and evidence likely to be of interest to policy
