thinking as you play focuses on how to teach not what to teach sylvia coats gives piano teachers tools to help students develop creativity and critical thinking and guidelines for organizing the music taught into a comprehensive curriculum she suggests effective strategies for questioning and listening to students to help them think independently and improve their practice and performance she also discusses practical means to develop an awareness of learning modalities and personality types a unique top down approach assists with presentations of musical concepts and principles rather than a bottom up approach of identifying facts before the reasons are known thinking as you play is one of the few available resources for the teacher of group piano lessons ranging from children s small groups to larger university piano classes coats discusses auditioning and grouping students strategies for maximizing student productivity and suggestions for involving each student in the learning process the manual of strategic planning for cultural organizations adopts a hollistic approach to the creative world of cultural institutions by encompassing museums art galleries gardens zoos science centers historic sites cultural centers festivals and performing arts this book responds to the reality that boundaries are being blurred among institutional types with many gardens incorporating exhibitions many museums part of multidisciplinary cultural centers and festivals as cultural leaders transform the arts in the twenty first century this whole career manual will prepare readers for every stage three key areas covered are leadership change this chapter explains the role of strategic planning when an institution is going through the process of hiring a new director a question we are frequently asked is should the strategic plan precede the search process or should it wait until the new director takes up the position institutional change increasingly cultural organizations are going through major change from public sector agencies to nonprofit corporations from private ownership to non profit status from nonprofit status to a foundation and many other variations this book addresses the role of strategic planning during these transitions staff empowerment this manual addresses the opportunities for staff at all levelsto grow by participating in strategic planning this edition focuses on how to engage and empower staff a guide for museums performing arts science centers public gardens heritage sites libraries archives and zoos is a game changing book with broad reach into the cultural sector while still serving the museum community
