Loukis Laras. Reminiscences of a Chiote Merchant During the War of Independence 2013-09-23 why are some marriages more successful more satisfying and more enduring than others the answer to this question is perhaps the most widely studied and best known part of our marriage and family therapy literature although arguably it is the least understood and certainly the least followed in terms of avoiding the pitfalls that lead to unsuccessful marriages what this book proposes as an answer to this question is the nearest thing we have to a manifesto for marriage and family living it provides us with a clear description of what married life should be like no words or ideas sum up the intention of this manifesto better or indicate more clearly its challenge to contemporary marriages than the words making marriage user friendly

Catalog of Copyright Entries 1891 when elizabeth bennet first knew mr darcy she despised him and was sure he felt the same angered by his pride and reserve influenced by the lies of the charming mr wickham she never troubled herself to believe he was anything other than the worst of men until one day he unexpectedly proposed mr darcy s passionate avowal of love causes elizabeth to reevaluate everything she thought she knew about him what she knows is that he is rich handsome clever and very much in love with her she on the other hand is poor and can expect a future of increasing poverty if she does not marry the incentives for her to accept him are strong but she is honest enough to tell him that she does not return his affections he says he can accept that but will either of them ever be truly happy in a relationship of unequal affection diverging from jane austen s classic novel pride and prejudice at the proposal in the hunsford parsonage this story explores the kind of man darcy is even before his proper humbling and how such a man so full of pride so much in love might have behaved had elizabeth chosen to accept his original proposal

Grammar and Dictionary of the Malay Language, with a Preliminary Dissertation 2012-05-16 for much of the middle ages the lara family was among the most powerful aristocratic lineages in spain proteges of the monarchy at the time of el cid their influence reached extraordinary heights during the struggle against the moors hand in glove with successive kings they gathered an impressive array of military and political positions across the iberian peninsula but cooperation gave way to confrontation as the family was pitted against the crown in a series of civil wars this book the first modern study of the laras explores the causes of change in the dynamics of power and narrates the dramatic story of the events that overtook the family the laras militant quest for territorial strength and the conflict with the monarchy led toward a fatal end but anticipated a form of aristocratic power that long outlived the family the noble elite would come to dominate spanish society in the coming centuries and the lara family provides important lessons for students of the history of nobility monarchy and power in the medieval and early modern world

Alphabetical List (by Title) of the Class of Prose Fiction 1816 in this brilliantly original book camille paglia identifies some of the major patterns that have endured in western culture from ancient egypt and greece to the present according to paglia one source of continuity is paganism which undefeated by judeo christianity continues to flourish in art eroticism astrology and pop culture others she says are androgyny sadism and the aggressive western eye which has created our art and cinema paglia follows these and other themes from nefertiti and the venus of willendorf to apollo and dionysus from botticelli and michaelangelo to shakespeare and blake and finally to emily dickinson who along with other major nineteenth century authors becomes a remarkable example of romanticism turned into decadence paglia offers provocative views of literature art history psychology and religion she focuses for example on the amorality voyeurism and pornography in great art that have been ignored or glossed over by most critics she discusses sex and nature as brutal daemonic forces and she criticizes feminists for sentimentality or wishful thinking about the causes of rape violence and poor relations between the sexes she stressed the biologic basis of sex differences and sees the mother as an overwhelming force who condemns men to lifelong sexual anxiety from which they escape through rationalism and physical achievement she examines the culture and style of modern male homosexuals she demonstrates how much of western life art and thought is ruled by personality which she traces through recurrent types or personae such as the female vampire medusa lauren bacall the pythoness the dephic oracle gracie allen the beautiful boy hadrian s antinous dorian gray the epicene man of beauty lord byron elvis presley and the male heroine baudelaire woody allen her book will stimulate and awe readers everywhere
