spending most of the day in the company of 30 children can still feel rather lonely there is little time for teachers to make meaningful contact with other adults to talk about how they can help one another and share ideas and when these opportunities do arise they are usually in formal circumstances inspections observations appraisals and training days as a result it can be difficult for teachers to develop a fair view of their own practice many are overly self critical because they rarely get to see that they are not the only ones who struggle with certain students or have difficulties keeping up with the workload some find it tough because they become too insular they get stuck in the same routines or feel that they have run out of ideas others become demoralised they feel over criticised undervalued and very misunderstood the perfect teacher intends to light up the shadows of the classroom to provide a multi faceted insight into what makes a good teacher taking the perspectives of different education related professionals as its starting point it acts as a critical friend helping teachers to reflect on their strengths whilst offering a range of viewpoints that may throw up new and fresh solutions to old problems the book provides advice from classroom teachers primary and secondary parents pupils headmasters senior teachers social workers special literary work the writer his excellency ambassador eddie m turay is very sincere and passionate in the presentation of his facts the facts relate to the culture traditions customs and party politics of his country the writers sincerity and passion revolves around the traditional beliefs and faith of his benevolent father in his ancestral spirits late paramount chief kande turay of sanda chieftom he reveals that the late man was an animist who despite neither believed nor practiced christianity and islam yet he gave him the freedom and support to become a practicing christian his father was not only liberal towards the two mainstream religions christianity and islam but he was a great admirer of the whitemans education that was why he gave him his blessings and support to pursue education for which he will ever remain grateful paramount chieftaincy is one of the oldest and respectable political institutions in this part of the african continent the writer has thrown enlightening lights on the way it works in the sanda chieftom northern sierra leone one more amazing revelation of the book is the prophecies of the writers father as the title of the book it is befitting because all that his father prophesied have come to pass his father did prophesise that the writer will dine and drink with royalties prime ministers and presidents at home and abroad which has come to pass in terms of his countrys national politics he paints the picture of the political culture that existed at the time it bordered on dysfunctional tendencies which was disturbing to him as an espouser of democracy and social justice thus educated and trained in the ethics of social justice and fairness the ambassador was determined to challenge these vices ironically it was his zealousness to challenge them that made him steal the heart of late president siaka p stevens the president was impressed so he convinced him to drop his legal practice and become a politician where he would have the opportunity to fully inculcate and defend the values of fair play and social justice as espoused by democratic ethos particularly at the grassroots levels of the nations politics the writer skilfully draws the contrasts between the old and new apc and above all the successful leadership of president ernest bai koroma leader of the apc he registers his unwavering support for the new apc party of which he is a profound member and her admirable leadership this book is an eye catching read as well as educative for its sincerity passion fun simple and quality language and buttressed by ideal concepts he ambassador eddie m turays colleagues in the diplomatic service foreign office as well as politicians and educational institutions at home and abroad will find this book a handy resource material on sierra leone politics within a practical business context of the changing competitive climate this book details the implications for marketing strategy new chapters cover topics such as credit cards and customer care while several relevant case studies have also been added combining analysis of principles concepts and techniques with sound practical advice marketing financial services is ideal for students on degree and postgraduate courses including chartered institute of bankers there is also a tutor resource pack to accompany the case studies in this textbook dreams seem the most private territory of experience yet dreaming culture argues they are a space in which we practice consider question and adapt cultural models of the self gender sexuality the prophecies of a father is a remarkable piece of literary work the writer his excellency ambassador eddie m turay is very sincere and passionate in the presentation of his facts the facts relate to the culture traditions customs and party politics of his country the writers sincerity and passion revolves around the traditional beliefs and faith of his benevolent father in his ancestral spirits late paramount chief kande turay of sanda chiefdom he reveals that the late man was an animist who despite neither believed nor practiced christianity and islam yet he gave him the freedom and support to become a practicing christian his father was not only liberal towards the two mainstream religions christianity and islam but he was a great admirer of the whitemans education that was why he gave him his blessings and support to pursue education for which he will ever remain grateful paramount chieftaincy is one of the oldest and respectable political institutions in this part of the african continent the writer has thrown enlightening lights on the way it works in the sanda chiefdom northern sierra leone one more amazing revelation of the book is the prophecies of the writers father as the title of the book it is befitting because all that his father prophesied have come to pass his father did prophesise that the writer will dine and drink with royalties prime ministers and presidents at home and abroad which has come to pass in terms of his countrys national politics he paints the picture of the political culture that existed at the time it bordered on dysfunctional tendencies which was disturbing to him as an espouser of democracy and social justice thus educated and trained in the ethics of social justice and fairness the ambassador was determined to challenge these vices ironically it was his zealousness to challenge them that made him steal the heart of late president siaka p stevens the president was impressed so he convinced him to drop his legal practice and become a politician where he would have the opportunity to fully inculcate and defend the values of fair play and social justice as espoused by democratic ethos particularly at the grassroots levels of the nations politics the writer skilfully draws the contrasts between the old and new apc and above all the successful leadership of president ernest bai koroma leader of the apc he registers his unwavering support for the new apc party of which he is a profound member and her admirable leadership this book is an eye catching read as well as educative for its sincerity passion fun simple and quality language and buttressed by ideal concepts he ambassador eddie m turays colleagues in the diplomatic service foreign office as well as politicians and educational institutions at home and abroad will find this book a handy resource material on sierra leone politics
