this book unravels mysteries corrects misunderstandings and offers thoughtful straightforward responses to common objections about the catholic faith bestselling author scott hahn a convert to catholicism has experienced the doubts that so often drive discussions about god and the church in the years before his conversion he was first a nonbeliever and then an anti catholic clergyman in reasons to believe he explains the how and why of the catholic faith drawing from scripture his own struggles and those of other converts as well as from everyday life and even natural science hahn shows that reason and revelation nature and the supernatural are not opposed to one another rather they offer complementary evidence that god exists but he doesn t merely exist he is someone and he has a personality a personal style that is discernible and knowable hahn leads readers to see that god created the universe with a purpose and a form a form that can be found in the book of genesis and that is there when we view the natural world through a microscope through a telescope or through our contact lenses at the heart of the book is hahn s examination of the ten keys to the kingdom the characteristics of the church clearly evident in the scriptures as the story of creation discloses the world is a house that has a father a palace where the king is really present god created the cosmos to be a kingdom and that kingdom is the universal church fully revealed by jesus christ

excerpt from what faith really means a simple explanation let us then begin at the beginning in the first place faith is necessary on this all are agreed for according to st paul we are justified by faith luther termed this faith the article of a standing or a falling church and as for catholics their belief concerning it is determined by the council of trent which called it sess vi 0 8 the beginning of human salvation the foundation and root of all justification but here unfortunately our agreement ends for with the question that necessarily follows what is faith 2 we are at once plunged into controversy ask the average protestant and you will find that by faith he means trusting in jesus christ for salvation believing that he shed his blood upon the cross and washed all his sins away personally accepting christ and his offered redemption the principal acts of saving faith says the confession of faith chap are accepting receiving and resting upon christ alone for justification sanctification and eternal life by virtue of the covenant of grace or to quote the more familiar answer of the shorter catechism to the question no what is faith in jesus christ 2 faith in jesus christ is a saving grace whereby we receive and rest upon him alone for salvation as he is offered to us in the gospel about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of

in this book anthony o hear examines the reasons that are given for religious faith his approach is firmly within the classical tradition of natural theology but an underlying theme is the differences between the personal creator of the bible or the koran and a god conceived of as the indeterminate ground of everything determinate drawing on several religious traditions and on the resources of contemporary philosophy specific chapters analyse the nature of religious faith and of religious experience they examine connections between religion and morality and religion and human knowledge the cosmological teleological and ontological arguments process thought and the problem that evil presents for religion the final chapter returns to the inherently dogmatic nature of religious faith and concludes that rational people should look beyond religion for the fulfilment of their spiritual needs too smart to believe in god the twelve philosophers in this book are too smart not to and their finely honed reasoning skills and advanced educations are on display as they explain their reasons for believing in christianity and entering the roman catholic church among the twelve converts are well known professors and writers including peter kreeft edward fesor j budziszewski candace vogler and robert koons each story is unique yet each one details the various perceptible ways god drew these lovers of wisdom to himself and to the church in every case reason played a primary role it had to because being a catholic philosopher is no easy task when the majority of one's colleagues thinks that religious faith is irrational although the reasonableness of the catholic faith captured the attention of these philosophers and cleared a space into which the seed of supernatural faith could be planted in each of these essays the attentive reader will find a fully human story the contributions are not merely collections of arguments they are stories of grace
