excerpt from virgil s aeneid book iii long ago before the time when saul was king over israel it is said that a ten year s war was waged in which the greeks sought to take the city of troy troy was situated in the north western corner of asia minor at the foot of mount ida and was inhabited by a people connected with the phrygians of asia minor under the rule of a family of kings descended from teucer those who came against them lived in greece one of the sunniest and most pleasant parts of the world including with the mainland all the islands both to the east and to the west the greeks and the trojans seem to have been very much alike in most ways their armor and method of warfare were alike they seemed to be able at all times to understand each other s speech and their manners customs
