interrelation of subjectivity materiality and representation in the poetry and related texts of four modern french writers arthur rimbaud guillaume apollinaire francis ponge and jacques réda she demonstrates the richness and the relevance of modern french poetry for today s readers putting contemporary thought to work on the fractured self emerging in the post baudelairian lyric harrow addresses the widely perceived marginalization of poetry in the writing theory debate demonstrating that the emergence of a self at once shaped by and straining against material historical subjective and cultural impediments reveals fertile relations between theory and poetry the prose poem jonathan monroe asserts is the genre that does not want to be itself in his view the dominant literary historical role of the prose poem has been to test the limits of generic constraints monroe here undertakes a comparative and historical investigation of the problematic relationship between prose and poetry and of the development of the prose poem over the past two centuries the study of resistance developed here by dr esther rowlands consists of a fresh interrogation of the notion of resistance discourse here for the first time this detailed study of selected wartime texts produced by francis ponge benjamin péret henri michaux and antonin artaud compiled between 1936 and 1946 presents a specific critique of resistance which investigates the possibility for opposition and subversion to take place without direct allusion to the object of resistance this investigation questions the criteria according to which literature is perceived as being resistant and suggests that historical and political referentiality may be deemed retaliative and reactionary thereby risking replication of the dominant order the relationship between language and power structures is elucidated through allusion to modern theorists michel de certeau michel foucault ross chambers and francoise proust the necessary framework for a study of the
