The Gunpowder Prince 2018-02-27 winner of the marine corps heritage foundation s 2019 colonel joseph alexander award for a distinguished book of biographical literature about a marine recognizing exemplary work that furthers the understanding of marine corps history traditions culture and service judged by marines and civilian experts the annual awards are a mark of distinction and achievement for journalists writers photographers artists and scholars in the early months of 1968 u s forces were tenaciously fighting often in mortal hand to hand combat in the dead of night to hold on to the sanh combat base and its scattered outposts against equally tenacious soldiers of the north vietnamese army who outnumbered the americans 5 to 1 and were determined to destroy them with a few grim exceptions the americans successfully held their positions but what few know even to this day is the end result would have been far more disastrous had it not been for a small band of resourceful officers in the khe sanh command bunker responsible for gauging what this overwhelming attack force of north vietnamese infantry tanks and artillery was going to do next then hastily devising imaginative schemes to stop them with no room for error prominent among them was thirty six year old marine corps captain mirza munir baig a scholarly cambridge educated immigrant from india his unique combination of classical education years of counterintelligence work in helping develop spy networks deep into north vietnam and an incomparable expertise in the use of field artillery enabled the enigmatic baig like a chess grand master to get into the heads of enemy tacticians including the legendary general vo nguyen giap and anticipate their every move author michael archer worked alongside this remarkable eccentric officer throughout that bitter ten week siege and with the help of later declassified american and vietnamese military records and memoirs leaves little doubt that captain baig s presence at khe sanh was critical to saving thousands of his fellow defenders from death or captivity and averting one of the gravest military defeats in american history this accomplishment was largely the result of captain baig s early recognition that contrary to what many still believe today north vietnamese forces arrayed against khe sanh were not an elaborate deception to divert american troops away from fighting elsewhere rather the result of a ruinous obsession by leaders in hanoi in which they would sacrifice thousands of their finest soldiers to replicate the stunning victory they had achieved against the french combat base at dien bien phu fourteen years earlier as he went about his deadly work baig also had a personal agenda driven by his need to erase the only stain on an otherwise celebrated family military tradition dating back centuries to the mongol conquest of the western himalayas in that sense mirza munir baig had been rehearsing his entire life to step on to a stage like khe sanh and influence the course of history

Whatever Cause We Have 2024-01-04 dan moore joined the marines to serve in vietnam and contribute to the anticipated american victory over communism after completing officer training and artillery school he deployed as a forward observer with an infantry company his letters home described day to day events and revealed a growing skepticism about the war during the battle of hue city moore lost his assistant forward observer soon followed by another close friend fighting to maintain equilibrium he suppressed his critical views of the war even after returning home to oversee marine recruit training his memoir unpacks his letters his recollections of the war and 50 years of introspection

Western Front 1914-1916 2013-07-16 from the moment the german army moved quietly into luxemburg on 2 august 1914 to the armistice on 11 november 1918 the fighting on the western front in france and flanders never stopped there were quiet periods just as there were the most intense savage huge scale battles the war on the western front can be thought of as being in three phases first a war of movement as germany attacked france and the allies sought to halt it second the lengthy and terribly costly siege warfare as the entrenched lines proved impossible to crack late 1914 to mid 1918 and finally a return to mobile warfare as the allies applied lessons and technologies forged in the previous years as with previous wars british commanders in chief of a theatre of war or campaign were obliged to report their activities and achievements to the war office in the form of a despatch and those written from the western front provide a fascinating detailed and compelling overview of this part of the first world war

World War I - 9 Book Collection 2023-12-06 this carefully crafted ebook the great war collection the battle of jutland the battle of the somme nelson s history of the war 9 books in one volume is formatted for your ereader with a functional and detailed table of contents john buchan 1875 1940 was a scottish novelist historian and also served as canada s governor general with the outbreak of the first world war buchan worked as a correspondent in france for the times content days to remember the british empire in the great war the battle of jutland the battle of the somme first phase the battle of the somme second phase nelson s history of the war volumes i v the definite history of this war is not now to be written or for many a day still it may be possible to disentangle from this struggle of armed nations over hundreds of miles some explicit narrative which may help all of us who are hungering for help and guidance at present we do not authentically know even the subtle causes which produced this convulsion over half the world what is on the surface is clear enough but it is what is under the surface that matters i am reluctant to believe in a diabolical and cold blooded scheme to bring about war at this time at least this does not seem to be proved we must then i think suspend our judgment as to the real causes of war till time and documents give us the clue perhaps the pregnant word mobilization may explain much meanwhile we can only conjecture by the light of a few facts excerpt nelson s history of the war

THE GREAT WAR COLLECTION 2023-12-08 sir john french had been appointed chief of the imperial general staff cigs in march 1912 and was promoted field marshal in june 1913 following the curragh incident in march 1914 he was forced to resign nevertheless when war broke out he was given command of the bef he was nearly sixty two years of age critics have argued that french s military experience ability acumen and temperament showed he was unfitted for such a command certainly his moods swung like a pendulum from over optimism to deepest gloom he was convinced during the retreat from mons that disaster was inevitable to the point that kitchener had to come out and stiffen his resolve in may 1915 he sacked smith dorrien commanding second army among other things for making a stand at le cateau 26 27 august 1914 having previously commended him for his action see despatch dated 7 sep 1914 following the unsuccessful attack on aubers ridge in may 1915 as a means of bringing pressure to bear on the government he revealed details of what he held to be the scandal of ammunition shortages to the military correspondent of the times and the ensuing article played a significant part in the decision to form a coalition government the failure of the loos offensive the culmination of a year of failures was the final nail in the coffin especially as there was a sharp disagreement between french and haig commanding first army which fought the battle about the former s handling of the reserve french claimed in his despatch dated 15 oct 1915 that he had put the 21st and 24th divisions from ghq reserve at haig s disposal at 0930 25th september and the guards division on the morning of the 26th haig formally protested that these statements were incorrect that these divisions did not come under his command till later than stated and he wished that fact to be placed on record in december 1915 this book contains eight despatches the first dated 7th sep covers the arrival of the bef in france the battle of mons and the retreat to 28th aug the second takes the story on to 10th sep describing the battle of the marne and the advance to the aisne the next despatch deals with the battle of the aisne and of especial interest to medallists is accompanied by the complete list by regiments of all mentioned in despatches since the beginning of the war subsequent despatches cover 1st ypres the winter campaign neuve chapelle 2nd ypres german gas attack and loos with three more lists of mid awards totalling some 360 pages
