A Pamphlet of Original Documents of United States History 2015-06-25

excerpt from a pamphlet of original documents of united states history edited with notes it is now generally conceded that high school and normal school students should do some work with the source method in the study of u s history with rare exceptions but little has been accomplished in this line below collegiate courses owing to the difficulty in placing material within reach of the pupils it is next to impossible to have all pupils in a class use the source material at the command of most high schools without the loss of a great amount of time which must be taken from a course of study already crowded to the limit a few pupils in all classes can readily find access to original documents the majority cannot this pamphlet is prepared to afford at a small cost an opportunity for any pupil to study in original form a few documents bearing upon the important events of history some prominence has been given to financial documents for the reason that the financial question has been and always will continue to be one of the great problems for solution by nations and individuals and most school text books treat the subject inadequately or indefinitely selection has been made only of such material as is of vital importance no pretension is made to give anything new rare or to give a great variety of documents an acquaintance with a few of the source documents may cultivate a taste or create a desire for a more extended course of study of such material which forms the basis of all sound historical knowledge about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works excerpt from original documents relating to the hostages of john king of france and the treaty of bretigny in 1360 it was in 1355 nine years after the successful issue of the battle of crecy near abbeville in 1346 which en tailed such renown on edward the black prince and eight from the capture of calais in 1347 that the truce with the french extended from time to time having expired the war was renewed in that year the determined and persistent object of king edward iii had been to establish his claim to the throne of france occupied at this time by john son of philip de valois but many circumstances especially the salique law which from the first had virtually excluded him tended to make him now regard the establishment of his claim beyond reasonable expectation so that for the cession of a quitaine with all its sovereign rights a proposition his plenipotentiaries were instructed to put forward he pro fessed himself ready to end a war which had been mainly signalized by the victory of crecy about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections excerpt from select letters of christopher columbus with other original documents relating to his four voyages to the new world it will be requisite however for the satisfaction of the reader to enter more minutely into the history of each of these documents individually the first and by far the most interesting of the letters is that addressed by columbus from lisbon under date of the 14th of march 1493 to raphael sanchez treasurer to ferninand and isabella and describes the occurrences of his first great discovery this letter the only one of the number now published that has hitherto appeared in the english language was translated very loosely and without comment in the edinburgh review for 1816 it is not known whether the original written by columbus in spanish be now in existence or not but it is possible that it may still lie like a diamond in the mine in some unexplored archive in spain about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works excerpt from memoirs of the wesley family collected principally from original documents among the persons that have contributed to the pages of this portion of the series of dr adam clarke's miscellaneous works the rev william beal may be named with respect whose volume entitled the fathers of the wesley family is noticed pp 44 59 but who is here otherwise acknowledged for important aid it may be further remarked as anxious solicitude is experienced to present the whole series as correct as possible to the public that dr clarke commenced preparations for a second edition of this work as far back as the latter end of 1823 this having been the case a change of circumstances has rendered in two or three instances a change of dates necessary the reader therefore will have to substitute 1824 for 1835 in a foot note p 40 for that which was strictly correct at the former period had become less so at the latter the party relieved having died in the interim and a change of circumstances having been experienced by some of the living the same remark will apply to mr cropp noticed p 66 who since the period of the entry was made has removed from vincent square to the neighborhood of monmouth it has been suggested too by one who is well acquainted with the geography of the neighborhood that john wesley can scarcely be supposed to have taken up his residence at preston as stated p 63 with a view to avoid the five mile act about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works excerpt from rutland papers original documents illustrative of the courts and times of henry vii and henry viii selected from the private archives of his grace the duke of rutland c c c thus the account of the field of the cloth of gold is an excellent illustration of shakspeare s description of that gay scene in henry viii act 1 sc and at the same time affords negative proof that the poet was not historically correct in putting it into the mouth of the duke of norfolk who was not among the king s followers there as the dukes of suffolk and buckingham were his grace s name on the contrary is not in the list and he was in fact as there are original letters to showfi the president or chief of the council left to govern england during the absence of the monarch about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an

this volume contains papers selected for presentation at the 6th IAPR workshop on document analysis systems DAS 2004 held during September 8-10 2004 at the University of Florence Italy several papers represent the state of the art in a broad range of traditional topics such as layout analysis applications to graphics recognition and handwritten documents other contributions address the description of complete working systems which is one of the strengths of this workshop some papers extend the application domains to other media like the processing of internet documents the peculiarity of this 6th workshop was the large number of papers related to digital libraries and to the processing of historical documents a taste which frequently requires the analysis of color documents a total of 17 papers are associated with these topics whereas two years ago in DAS 2002 only a couple of papers dealt with these problems in our view there are three main reasons for this new wave in the DAS community from the scientific point of view several research fields reached a thorough knowledge of techniques and problems that can be effectively solved and this expertise can now be applied to new domains another incentive has been provided by several research projects funded by the EC and the NSF on topics related to digital libraries excerpt from the Grey Friars in Oxford part I a history of the convent part II biographical notices of the friars together with appendices of original documents the object of this work is to give an account of the outward life of the Franciscans this might be fairly taken to include the whole activity of the friars with the exception of their contribution to scholastic philosophy for that clearly forms a subject by itself but even with this limitation the account here given of the Franciscans work does not pretend to be complete the documents which remain to us do not by any means cover the whole of the active life of the Franciscans while for the thirteenth century and the dissolution the records are fairly numerous the materials for the intervening period are very scanty thus any attempt at a chronological narrative was out of the question and the almost total absence of all Franciscan records properly so called in England has proved an effectual bar to any completeness of treatment at all the arrangement here adopted both in the choice of subjects and in the relative prominence given to each of them is due simply to the exigencies of the available materials relating to the oxford convent the topographical information derived from records and other sources has been neither full enough nor accurate enough to enable me to supply a map or plan of the property and buildings of the grey friars about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
