Know Your World 1992

Immanuel Wallerstein's Know Your World (1992) is a state-of-the-world address that documents the profound transformations of our world. He argues that these transformations come with equally profound changes in how we understand the world. Wallerstein begins his work with an appraisal of significant recent events: the collapse of the Leninist states, the exhaustion of national liberation movements, the rise of East Asia, challenges to national sovereignty, dangers to the environment, debates about national identity, and the marginalization of migrant populations. Wallerstein places these events and trends

this book is nothing short of a state of the world address delivered by a scholar uniquely suited to the task. Immanuel Wallerstein, one of the most prominent social scientists of our time, documents the profound transformations our world is undergoing. With these transformations, he argues, come equally profound changes in how we understand the world. Wallerstein begins his work with an appraisal of significant recent events: the collapse of the Leninist states, the exhaustion of national liberation movements, the rise of East Asia, challenges to national sovereignty, dangers to the environment, debates about national identity, and the marginalization of migrant populations. Wallerstein places these events and trends in the context of the changing modern world system as a whole and identifies the historic choices they put before us the end of the world as we know it concludes with a crucial analysis of the momentous intellectual challenges to social science as we know it today and suggests possible responses to them

darwin named geography as queen of the sciences his observations of geographical connections had revealed the phenomenon of life in a remarkably structured earth world as inter locked dynamic systems this systems view of life is reviving at a time when we are facing a crisis of collapse in world systems and the prospect of a breaking world as a result of reckless human activities driven by amoral values we are all geographers embarked on a voyage in search of the optimum location with the promise of support and betterment of our future living conditions but for most of the world s people this is an experience of life fraught with hardship and deprivation compelled to take stock of our deteriorating environment as well as to question the values we hold the message is that we have the collective restorative power of geographical knowledge which can be applied to achieve a better world
