an utterly absorbing collection of ten classic tales from the therapist's chair by renowned psychiatrist and best-selling author Irvin D. Yalom. Newsday: Why was Saul tormented by three unopened letters from Stockholm? What made Thelma spend her whole life raking over a long past love affair? The collection of ten absorbing tales by master psychotherapist Irvin D. Yalom uncovers the mysteries, frustrations, pathos, and humor at the heart of the therapeutic encounter. First published in 1989, this New York Times bestselling collection of ten tales by distinguished psychotherapist Irvin D. Yalom has become a classic with insight and sympathy. Yalom uncovers the mysteries, frustrations, pathos, and humor at the heart of the therapeutic encounter. In this seminal work, American psychiatrist Irvin Yalom finds the essence of existential psychotherapy and gives it a coherent structure, synthesizing its historical background, core tenets, and usefulness to the practice. Indeed, these enthralling tales go beyond therapy to speak to the human condition in all its poignant oddity, and in them Irvin Yalom achieves a pathos and humor worthy of Chekhov himself. Endorsements: New York Times bestselling author of Love's Executioner and The Gift of Therapy, psychotherapist Irvin D. Yalom probes further into the mysteries of the therapeutic encounter in this entertaining and thoughtful collection. In his long-awaited new collection of stories, renowned psychiatrist Irvin D. Yalom describes his patients' struggles as well as his own to come to terms with the two great challenges of existence: how to have a meaningful life and how to reckon with its inevitable end. In this stunning collection of stories, renowned psychiatrist Irvin D. Yalom describes his patients' struggles as well as his own to come to terms with the two great challenges of existence: how to have a meaningful life yet reckon with its inevitable end. These remarkably moving and instructive tales of the psychiatric encounter bring the reader into novel territories of the mind, and the landscape is truly unforgettable. Maggie Scarf: Love's Executioner is one of those rare books that suggests both the mystery and the poetry of the psychotherapeutic process. The culmination of master psychiatrist Dr. Irvin D. Yalom's more than 35 years in clinical practice, The Gift of Therapy is a remarkable and essential guidebook that illustrates through real case studies how patients and therapists alike can get the most out of therapy. In his long-awaited new collection of stories, renowned psychiatrist Irvin D. Yalom describes his patients' struggles as well as his own to come to terms with the two great challenges of existence: how to have a meaningful life and how to reckon with its inevitable end. These are wonderful teaching stories filled with showing how a meaningful psychotherapy can be conducted rather than prescriptions for what one should do. As a clinician, we have Yalom recounting therapeutic interactions in his vivid, easily flowing prose.
