London Society 1895 of all the foolish things myles trent has ever done falling in love with his boss s daughter is undoubtedly the worst everyone in town knows that beulah will marry al moore someday everyone but if that s true why does beulah seem to work so hard at attracting myles s attention why does she light up whenever he is near no matter what common sense might tell him myles cannot give up hope that someday beulah fairfield will be his beulah can t help admiring this mysterious hired man what secrets does myles hide no one knows his past he could be from anywhere a bank robber or desperado and why is myles so bitter toward god surely beulah cannot love a man who doesn t serve her lord yet a woman s heart seldom listens to reason is beulah putting herself at risk what happens when myles s shadowy past draws him away from the woman he loves
