this book constitutes the second volume of a three volume study of christian testimonies to divine suffering god s wounds hermeneutic of the christian symbol of divine suffering vol 2 evil and divine suffering the larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from christian discourse about the nature and life of god this second volume of studies proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of this symbol those implicit attestations that provide the conditions of possibility for divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation as identified and examined in the first volume of this project an understanding of god through the primary metaphor of love god is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of god with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago dei as love the second volume then investigates the first two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally attest 1 divine grief suffering because of betrayal by the beloved human or human sin and 2 divine self sacrifice suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation each divine wound thus constitutes a response to a creaturely occasion the suffering in each divine wound also occurs in two stages a passive stage and an active stage in divine grief god suffers because of human sin betrayal of the divine lover by the beloved human divine sorrow as the passive stage of divine grief and divine anguish as the active stage of divine grief in divine self sacrifice god suffers in response to the misery or bondage of the beloved human s infidelity divine travail focused on the divine incarnation in jesus of nazareth as the active stage of divine self sacrifice and divine agony focused on divine suffering in the crucifixion of jesus of nazareth as the passive stage of divine self sacrifice prison for oscar wilde an english prison with its insufficient bad food 1 and soul degrading routine for that amiable joyous eloquent pampered sybarite here was a test indeed an ordeal as by fire what would he make of two years hard labour in a lonely cell there are two ways of taking prison as of taking most things and all the myriad ways between these two extremes would oscar be conquered by it and allow remorse and hatred to corrupt his very heart or would he conquer the prison and possess and use it hammer or anvil which victory has its virtue and is justified of itself like sunshine defeat carries its own condemnation yet we have all tasted its bitter waters only infinite virtue can pass through life victorious shakespeare tells us and we mortals are not of infinite virtue the myriad vicissitudes of the struggle search out all our weaknesses test all our powers every victory shows a more difficult height to scale a steeper pinnacle of god like hardship that s the reward of victory it provides the hero with ever new battle fields no rest for him this side the grave in books like embryogenesis and embryos galaxies and sentient beings author richard grossinger brought together the subjects of biological embryology and the esoteric process of human consciousness becoming embodied the embryo is the universe writing itself on its own body in dark pool of light his three volume series of books discussing the nature of reality and consciousness grossinger weaves neuroscience based behaviorism and the phenomenology of being and reality together with psychological and psychospiritual views of that single thing which is most difficult to understand or vindicate our own existence in 2008 grossinger began studying with noted psychic teacher john friedlander who helped him refine his vision of cerebral and somatic awareness to still subtler levels dark pool of light began unnamed in the journals of my psychic work with john friedlander says grossinger not so much a record of actual practices as insights from them and extensions out of them this expansive inquiry into the nature of consciousness ends with this third volume in the series the crisis and future of consciousness grossinger addresses the perennial question of evil and shares the author s hopes and fears for the future of humanity while wisdom gleaned from such seemingly disparate sources as science philosophy religion and spirituality might appear very very different things grossinger nevertheless finds their meeting place in subjective lived experience this book presents the first sustained articulation of a foucauldian œuvre it situates foucault s critique within the tradition of kant s call for a philosophical archaeology of reason in parallel it demonstrates the priority in foucault s thought of nietzsche over heidegger and the framing of reason against an ontology of power bregham dalgliesh hereby claims that at the heart of the foucauldian œuvre is the philosophical method of critical history its task is to make the will to know that drives thought conscious of itself as a problem especially the regimes of truth that define our governmentalities by revealing the contingency of their constituent parts of knowledge power and ethics dalgliesh demonstrates that critical history offers an alternative mode of critique to the hithertofore singular reading of the intellectual heritage of enlightenment while it fosters an agonistic concept of freedom in respect of our putatively necessary limits after working with thousands of struggling members of the church of jesus christ of latter day saints over many years the authors decided to write a book offering hope and answers for those struggling with faith crisis unbeknownst to the general church membership the 20th century would witness an organized effort to rewrite latter day saint history from within its own ranks in a head to head behind the scenes battle traditional leaders resisted intellectual progressives working in the church history department and at byu who claimed some forty years ago that it would take a generation to re educate the church membership where are we in this attempted re education what is the new mormon history and how does it personally affect you and your family join us as we explore newly available diaries review old books and bring untold history into the light progressives claim the church covered up its history for nearly 200 years is the current faith crisis stemming from unmasked history or new interpretations why did new mormon historians insist hofmann s forgeries were legitimate even when investigators provided convincing evidence to them of the hoax how did bruce r mcconkie know hofmann s joseph smith iii blessing was a fake despite authentication by document experts and pressure by historians calling him incompetent for questioning who were the swearing elders how did this group of progressive latter day saints reshape the identity of mormonism why did carol lynn pearson and leonard arrington share cards that read history is on our side as long as we can control the historians leonard arrington shared that an invisible higher power commissioned him to rewrite or reconstruct our dominant narrative of the restoration did god want our history changed why did leonard arrington say the first vision nephites and gold plates were part of the mormon myth why did leonard arrington note that if he were honest about his beliefs not many latter day saints would want him to teach their children how did this affect his career as church historian and later at byu progressives working in the church history department and at byu claimed 40 years ago it would take a generation to re educate the church where are we in this re education the research and findings in this volume are truly history altering using newly released documents combined with deep knowledge of church history the stoddards are bringing to light what could be termed a soft coup d'état of the church's scriptures and prophets by progressive historians bent on altering its history hold tight to your faith in the history held by the church for over 150 years and the teachings of our prophets as you discover how deep this attempted takeover has infiltrated and altered our sacred history rod meldrum researcher best selling latter day saint author international lecturer years ago we stopped going to church suddenly god awakened me and brought me back into the fold as i hungered and learned more about the restoration it was upsetting to hear things being said about joseph that i knew were not true i hit a major faith crisis right as i was about to leave the church and follow another sect that follows the teachings of the book of mormon i read the stoddard's faith crisis book this book along with promptings and teachings from the spirit helped me navigate through many questions this book only helped grow my testimony of the truthfulness of the restoration of the gospel and of the church of jesus christ of latter day saints i now stand strong in the faith and know that i am in the only true church i'm so thankful for the joseph smith foundation and the many hours put in toward helping others stay strong in the church of jesus christ of latter day saints latter day saint mother of six

this book offers both a philosophical and psychological theory of an aspect of human love first noted by plato and used by freud in developing psychoanalysis transference love namely lovers as mirrors for one another enabling them thus better to see and understand themselves and others shakespeare s art makes the same appeal theater as a communal mirror expressing the artist holding a loving mirror for his culture at a point of transitional crisis between a shame and guilt culture the book shows how shakespeare s plays offer better insights into the behavior of violent men than freud s based on close empirical study of violent criminals develops a theory of violence rooted in the moral emotions of shame and guilt and a cultural psychology of the transition from shame to guilt cultures the work argues that violence is contra freud not an ineliminable instinct in the nature of things requiring autocracy but arises from patriarchally inflicted cultural injuries to the love of equals that undermine democracy and that only a therapy based on love can address such injuries replacing retributive with restorative justice and populist fascist autocracy with constitutional democracy love thus understood underlies a range of disparate phenomena the appeal of shakespeare s theater as a communal art the role of love in psychoanalysis in augustine s conception of love in religion disfigured by his patriarchal assumptions in kant s anti utilitarian ethics of dignity in a naturalistic ethics that roots ethics in facts of human psychology the role of law in democratic cultures as a mirror and critique of such cultures and the basis of an egalitarian theory of universal human rights inspired by kant and developed more recently by john rawls in all these domains uncritically accepted forms of culture the initiation of men and women into patriarchy traumatize the love of equals and thus disfigure and distort our personal and political lives
