Átmánuśásana commonly spelled as atmanushasan by Ácárya gunabhadra presents profound concepts of the jaina doctrine in a form that is easily understood remarkable for its poetry and meaning it expounds that right faith samyagdarśana is the cause of merit and wrong faith of demerit to have belief in the true nature of substances is right faith dharma is the man s most excellent possession the conduct that leads to merit is dharma and it results in happiness after destroying misery whether happy or miserable dharma should be the only pursuit of man true happiness is not the momentary sprinkling of the r

pleasures of the senses long life wealth and sound body are obtained from the previously earned merit puṇya under the spell of sinful karmas the man experiences misery excellent men with discrimination work hard incessantly and cheerfully the sake of their future lives the happiness attained through austerity tapa can never be attained by craving for wealth no dust of disgrace ever touches the feet of the man fortified by austerity the ascetic goes on to perform austerity while protecting his body for a very long time through the power of austerity he vanquishes his natural enemies like the passions of anger etc in the after life he automatically and speedily attains liberation as the culmination of his human effort
