a remarkable cast of past and present young Canadians stride across the pages of legends in their time each having a significant role to play in Canadian history beginning in the 1500s and moving on into the 20th century each chapter contributes insights into the evolution of Canada as a nation author George Sherwood's thorough research and his scene setting bring to life the heroic accomplishments and tragic exploits that make Canada's story a fascinating and entertaining account included are explorer Etienne Brule, Osborne Anderson, survivor of Harper's Ferry, inventor Armand Bombardier, human rights activist Toy Jin Jean Wong, and the heroic Terry Fox to name but a few of the extraordinary lives that are chronicled. Complementing the text are historic photographs and original artwork by award-winning artist Stewart Sherwood. For those who think Canada lacks heroes or Canada does not honour its heroes, legends in their time is the book for you. Extensively researched and written in an engaging style, it recognizes that heroes and heroines come in many forms, as shown in the richness of our history. John Myers, teacher/educator, OISE UT.

they leave their kidneys in the fields takes the reader on an ethnographic tour of the melon and corn harvesting fields in california s central valley to understand why farmworkers die at work each summer laden with captivating detail of farmworkers daily work and home lives horton examines how u s immigration policy and the historic exclusion of farmworkers from the promises of liberalism has made migrant farmworkers what she calls exceptional workers she explores the deeply intertwined political legal and social factors that place latino migrants at particular risk of illness and injury in the fields as well as the patchwork of health care disability and social security policies that provide them little succor when they become sick or grow old the book takes an in depth look at the work risks faced by migrants at all stages of life as teens in their middle age and ultimately as elderly workers by following the lives of a core group of farmworkers over nearly a decade horton provides a searing portrait of how their precarious immigration and work statuses culminate in preventable morbidity and premature death provided by publisher

The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art 1881

lots of marketers paint a rosy picture of the lifestyle of baby boomers as they enter the retirement years but authors moschis and mathur basing their findings on 20 years of surveys among baby boomers and their parents tell it like it is many baby boomers have saved little money for retirement their health is worse than that of their parents and while both generations say travel is in their futures many will not have money enough to rent a budget motel a few miles from home but the picture is not all bleak moschis and mathur use their findings to discuss how people can live longer more satisfying lives in addition they apply those findings to marketing and advertising advising businesses how to use the attitudes and mindsets of mature consumers to create products and services for them as well as to make those products and services more appealing to older customers
