in return to babel each of ten historically significant biblical texts is interpreted by three scholars one latin american one african and one asian geographic locales range from a tiny village in the philippines to the city of nairobi kenya from gwangju south korea with its one million inhabitants to the frontier city of wiwili in the northern mountains of nicaragua the result is a collection of essays that shed new light on familiar texts and make the reader aware of the ways in which culture can shape our understanding of scripture this volume offers a re examination of some of the prevalent paradigms in latin american jewish studies and an instigation to further explorations in this area it sets out from an interdisciplinary standpoint comprising literature culture history cinematography music and visual arts this collection of articles seeks a wider range of theoretical and disciplinary perspectives concerning latin american jewish experiences and thereby offers a framework for innovative as well as traditional modes of analysis it elaborates on themes of jewish identity as represented in the history cultures and societies of latin america in the current era of hybridism and transnationalism it seems we wake each day to a world engulfed in chaos and confusion a society mired in godlessness and humanism and families struggling to guide their children in faith yet god gave us the answer his holy word begin as he recorded for us to begin with genesis after many years of teaching and speaking on the importance of foundational faith leading apologetics author ken ham of answers in genesis has created a clear and powerful study that helps root families and young or struggling believers in biblical truth he makes it easy to build a vital genesis founded worldview in this simple yet profound study that explores the importance and implications of pivotal events verse by verse from creation to babel discover important context to answer relevant faith questions easy to understand exploration of the biblical text the essential guide to laying a faith foundational view faith without a strong foundation crumbles in the face of today s relentless anything encountered in the mythical lands of the deserted babylon when we look at world conditions today we see problems that we could not have imagined thirty years ago we ask ourselves will man ever be able to get along at all sadly the answer is no from the beginning of creation man has been in some form of combat war or strife when we ask why no one has an answer the only place to find the correct answer is in the bible the bible says that god scattered the one race into many at the tower of babel because he did not like what he saw that with man nothing would be impossible that is the reason god did not want one race one speech one tongue that is what has kept man separated in the past now satan wants to put all the races together for world domination and control we are in the midst of that process now that is the sum total of all prophecy s p gray has studied prophecy for 35 years and that is his gift he likes to keep up on what s being fulfilled in the word of god his hope is that he can be used to spark an interest in prophecy and that the body of christ takes prophecy the way god meant it to be he is currently teaching a class on prophecy and has taught basic described by historians today continues to be a largely english only space even when other language communities are examined they too are considered to be monolingual and discrete babel of the atlantic pushes back against this monolingual fallacy by documenting multilingualism translation and fluid movement across linguistic borders focusing on philadelphia and surrounding areas that include germantown bethlehem and the so called indian country to the west this volume demonstrates the importance of viewing inhabitants not as members of isolated language communities whether english german lenape mohican or others but as creators of a vibrant zone of mixed languages and shifting politics organized around four themes religion education race and abolitionism and material culture and architecture and drawing from archives such as almanacs newspapers and the material world the chapters in this volume show how polyglot tolerant and multilingual spaces encouraged diverse peoples to coexist contributors examine subjects such as the multicultural moravian communities in colonial pennsylvania the charity school movement of the 1750s and the activities of quaker abolitionists showing how educational and religious movements addressed and embraced cultural and linguistic variety drawing early american scholarship beyond the normative narrative of monolingualism this volume
