we are all walking around this city with our hearts sadly swimming in our chests like dying fish on the surface of a still pond it's enough to make you give up entirely from instant love but we don't give up we keep trying we're either too stupid to learn from our mistakes or we honestly believe that the next time will be different it's hard to say which driven by the mad hopefulness that is part of the human condition we are constantly falling in and out of love with a slightly different version of the person who came before jami attenberg chronicles those exact moments with heartbreaking realism in her powerful debut Instant Love told through the eyes of three young women and their friends and lovers Instant Love explores what it means to be in love what it means to be lonely and what it means to be both at the same time holly turns to computer dating to find love even as she thinks wistfully of a former boyfriend who loved her well and fed her ice cream maggie recounts the story of her one crazy summer to her disbelieving husband and feels the distance between them grow wider than the void across their king sized bed and sarah lee remembers the one who got away and the one she ran away from all the while moving toward the one she can actually love as holly maggie and sarah lee move through the rituals of modern love they have to decide who is worth taking a chance on in a world where things don't fall into place easily people are often difficult and disappointment is the rule through their stories attenberg presents a rare honest look at love also available as an ebook

A New York Times best crime novel of the year in the newest entry into the Nero Award winning Pentecost Parker mystery series, Lillian and Will are hot on the trail of a serial killer whose murders are stranger than fiction. The Pentecost Parker series takes gritty 40s noir and shakes it up, gives it a charming twist and serves it up with unforgettable style. Deanna Raybourn, author of the Veronica Speedwell mysteries from the author of Fortune Favors the Dead and Murder Under Her Skin, New York City 1947. For years Holly Quick has made a good living off of murder, filling up the pages of pulp detective magazines with gruesome tales of revenge. Now someone is bringing her stories to life and leaving a trail of blood-soaked bodies behind with the threat of another murder looming and reluctant to go to the police, Holly turns to the best crime-solving duo in or out of the pulps.

willowjean will parker and her boss famed detective lillian pentecost the pair are handed the seemingly impossible task of investigating three murders at once without tipping off the cops or the press that the crimes are connected a tall order made even more difficult by the fact that will is already signed up to spend her daylight hours undercover as a guileless secretary in the hopes of digging up a lead on an old adversary dr olivia waterhouse but even if will is stuck in pencil skirts and sensible shoes she s not about to let her boss have all the fun soon she s diving into an underground world of people obsessed with murder and the men and women who commit them can the killer be found in the black museum club run by a philanthropist whose collection of grim murder memorabilia may not be enough to satisfy his lust for the homicidal or is it holly quick s pair of editors who read about murder all day but clearly aren t telling the full story with victims seemingly chosen at random and a murderer who thrives on spectacle the case has the great lillian pentecost questioning her methods but whatever she does she d better do it fast holly quick has a secret too and it s about to bring death right to pentecost and parker s doorstep
